Regent, 1867-1880

Called by the first Board of Trustees of the University of Illinois, John Milton Gregory left his post at Ypsilanti Normal School to become the first Regent of the youthful University. Confronted with the problem of convincing the neighboring farm community that the new University was an industrial school, he had overcome all objections and made the institution an integral part of the educational system of the State of Illinois by the end of his Regency in 1881.

Regent, 1881-1891

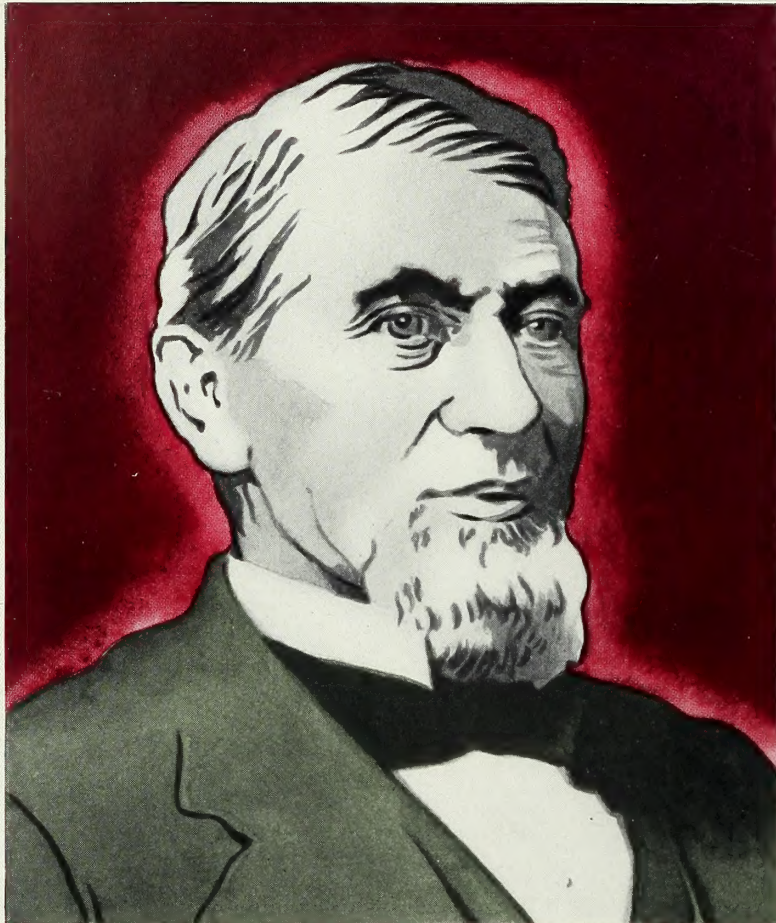

Although the University had previously received some slight assistance from the State, it was under the guidance of Selim Hobart Peabody that actual instruction was given financial support by the legislature of Illinois. In addition to securing this recognition for his school, Dr. Peabody by his own interest in engineering was instrumental in elevating the University of Illinois to its position as one of the foremost institutions of instruction in that field.

Thomas Jonathan Burrill brought to the office of Acting Regent the experience of his many years of service as Vice-Regent, and at the same time imbued the University with new spirit and vigor. Under his guidance the Graduate School took form, the first Summer School was begun, the initial attempts at extension service were made, and additional appropriations were secured from the state legislature.

Inaugurator of the executive machinery which lived practically intact throughout the two succeeding administrations, President Draper proved that his talent was eminently administrative. His incumbency is remarkable for the striking regularity of the founding of whole new colleges and schools. Under him the divisions of Law, Medicine, Dentistry, Pharmacy, Music, and Library Science took shape and assumed autonomy.

THINK that the great thing we can do for you as students is to help you to grow up. I do not believe in things which tend to prolong unduly in universities the period of immaturity. The university is a place where people grow up mentally, morally, and emotionally. It is, it seems to me, the concern of a university like ours to train people to bear their due part in the affairs of adult life.

I am in favor of encouraging students to assume responsibility. American life needs and requires people who have habits of individual initiative and who are able to take and bear responsibility.

I hope it may be my good fortune to contribute to an environment which will foster liberally educated people. Conformity to a pattern and mediocrity are the greatest foes within our gates to liberalization of the mind. The development of individuality and a well-rounded, liberal open-minded personality are the things that count enduringly.

GEORGE A. BARR
President, Board of Trustees

Meeting of the Board, November 16, 1931

TO THE STUDENTS OF ILLINOIS

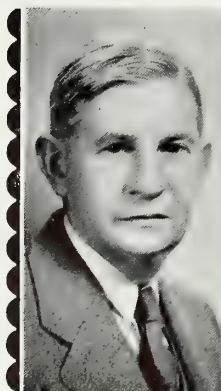

TAKE pleasure in extending to you the greetings of the members of the Board of Trustees. You are fortunate in having the privilege of obtaining an education in the healthy environment which exists at the University of Illinois. I congratulate the class of 1932 for continuing the custom of publishing THE ILLIO, and giving through it an intimate glimpse of the students' side of the University. Your publication, like the University, has made great progress since the first issue appeared thirty-seven years ago. I take a personal pride in THE ILLIO because, while a student at Illinois, I served as editor of the volume published by my class. In the years that have intervened, I have observed with satisfaction and pleasure the improvements that have been made year by year in the quality of this excellent book. It has kept step with the growth and improvement of the University itself. It is a credit to our Alma Mater.

What our University has done in the past is history, and her sons and daughters are proud of her accomplishments. Its growth and influence in the future rest largely on the work of those who are now students and those who shall pass through its halls in the years to come. You have an important responsibility.

The Trustees extend to you their best wishes for that joy which comes from work well done, and invite your co-operation and interest both as students and later as alumni and citizens in the welfare and future success of Illinois.

DEAN MILO S. KETCHUM

MILO SMITH KETCHUM, '95, Dean of the College of Engineering, was born in Kewanee, Illinois, on January 26, 1872. Since finishing his undergraduate work, he has been constantly connected with universities, except for two brief periods. In 1897-99 he served as bridge and structural engineer for the Gillett-Herzog Manufacturing Company, and in 1903-04 was with the American Bridge Company in Kansas City. During the war he was Assistant Director of the U. S. Government Explosives Plants in administrative charge of the construction of the Smokeless Powder Plant at Nitro, West Virginia. Before assuming his present position in 1922, he served in similar capacities at the University of Colorado from 1905 to 1919, and at the University of Pennsylvania from 1919 to 1922.

THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

THE history of the College of Engineering is as old as that of any of the Colleges in the University of Illinois, for in May, 1867, at its second meeting, the Board of Trustees adopted the report of its Committee on Courses of Study and Faculty which provided for "Courses in Mechanical Science and Art, Civil Engineering, Mining Engineering and Metallurgy, and Architecture and Fine Arts." Instruction in Engineering began January 1, 1870, but announcements of the curricula in Engineering were not published until 1871-72, when four curricula were offered, namely: Mechanical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Mining Engineering, and Architecture. Today the College of Engineering offers twelve curricula and has a splendidly equipped Experiment Station which does research work in all branches of the subject. The Engineering staff numbers 227, and the registration of students in October, 1931, was 1357, exclusive of 132 graduate students. Graduate work in engineering has developed markedly in the last few years. The several engineering departments have been strengthening their graduate courses as rapidly as their resources will permit, in an effort to stimulate interest in graduate work and research.

ASSISTANT DEAN HARRIS F. FLETCHER

HARRIS FRANCIS FLETCHER, Assistant Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, was born at Ypsilanti, Michigan, October 23, 1892. He left Michigan State Normal College in 1912, and received his Bachelor of Arts degree at the University of Michigan in 1914. From the same University he received his Master of Arts degree in 1923 and his Doctor of Philosophy degree in 1926. Mr. Fletcher was superintendent of Schools at Algonac, Michigan, from 1914 to 1918, and instructed in rhetoric at the University of Michigan from 1923 to 1926. In 1926 he accepted the position of assistant professor of English at the University of Illinois. In 1931, he was appointed Assistant Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

ALTHOUGH points of view regarding the securing of a liberal education have changed considerably in the past century, there is a certain persistence from one generation to another of interests peculiar to the liberal college. It has been apparent that the problems arising from those interests have been taking a definite trend.

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences reflects this trend in the wide variety of opportunities offered to undergraduates, whether in the so-called "humanities" or in the sciences. This College has been concerned chiefly with fitting young people to meet the problems of the present age, for this purpose drawing upon the intellectual and cultural as well as the factual heritages of the past and present. The College also offers approaches to various professional schools and colleges, these approaches being in the main attempts to aid the student in finding himself both professionally and as an adult human being.

DEAN CHARLES M. THOMPSON

CHARLES MANFRED THOMPSON, '09, Dean of the College of Commerce and Director of the Bureau of Business Research, was born in Fairfield, Illinois, on November 10, 1877. On completing his undergraduate work here, he went to Harvard University, where he studied in 1910-11, returning to the University of Illinois in 1911 as an assistant in history. He continued his graduate work here, receiving his Doctor of Philosophy degree in 1913. Since that time he has been serving continuously on the faculty, accepting his present position in 1919. In 1931 he accepted the McKinley Professorship of the Economics of Public Utilities, and in the same year he was appointed Head of the Department of Public Utilities and Transportation.

THE COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

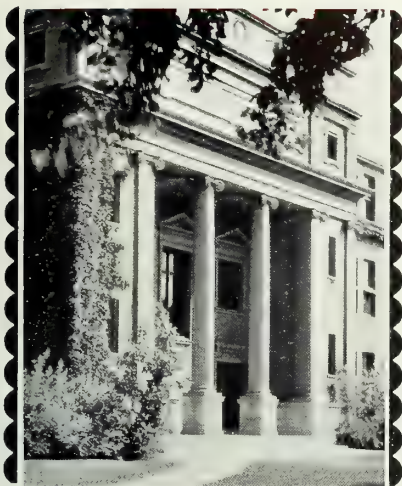

ALTHOUGH courses in business and commercial training were offered as early as 1902 under the supervision of Dr. David Kinley, Dean of the College of Literature and Arts, it was thirteen years later that the College of Commerce and Business Administration was organized as an independent and educational unit with a Dean and a faculty. It has grown steadily, until today the student enrollment exceeds two thousand, a little less than one-tenth of which are women.

Its courses aim at the development of fundamentals, and to further this end, theories rather than practices are stressed in the classroom. Students in the College of Commerce therefore are led to know the way of whatever they undertake. To put the matter in other words, they learn how to make tools as well as sharpen them.

DEAN HERBERT W. MUMFORD

HERBERT WINDSOR MUMFORD, Dean of the College of Agriculture, Director of the Agricultural Experiment Station and Agricultural Extension Service, was born in Moscow, Michigan, February 26, 1871. He received his education at Albion College and Michigan State College, from which he was graduated in 1891, and from which he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Agriculture in 1927. Returning to his Alma Mater in 1895, he served as an instructor and assistant in the Agricultural College and Experiment Station, attaining his full professorship in 1899. In 1901 he was appointed Professor of Animal Husbandry at the University of Illinois, and since that time has been here continuously, serving in his present capacity since 1922.

THE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

THE College of Agriculture serves an Illinois industry valued at three and three-quarter billion dollars. It had its beginning in 1867 with the establishment of the Illinois Industrial University, and has made rapid progress since 1895. The staff, including members in the Agricultural Experiment Station and Extension Service, now numbers approximately two hundred. Buildings, lands, laboratory equipment, and other facilities have grown from very meager beginnings to the point where the institution is among the best equipped of its kind.

Enrollment in the College has increased from 50 in 1870 to 658 in 1931. Two hundred sixty-five research and experimental projects are in progress to help solve the practical and scientific problems confronting farmers and homemakers individually and collectively. Results of the research work and its practical application to farming and homemaking have added greatly to the wealth of the state, besides being of economic and social value to the nation and the world-at-large.

DEAN THOMAS E. BENNER

THOMAS ELIOT BENNER, Dean of the College of Education, was born in Danvers, Massachusetts, February 11, 1894. He was graduated from Harvard University in 1914, returning for graduate work in 1915 and again in 1922, and receiving his Doctor of Education degree in 1924. His experience includes public school work in Massachusetts, Maine, and Alabama, the chancellorship of the University of Porto Rico, and a visiting professorship at Columbia University. He became Dean of the College of Education September 1, 1931.

THE COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

THE College of Education had its origin in the creation of a chair of Pedagogics in 1893 and the selection of Dr. Frank Martin McMurry as its first occupant. The way for this action had been prepared by Charles de Garmo, Professor of Psychology, who had shown an especial interest in the study of education. In 1900 there was established a Department of Education, which became the School of Education in 1907, and finally received its present title, the College of Education, in 1918.

The major obligation of the College has been considered from the beginning to be the training of high school teachers, principals, supervisors, and superintendents. In carrying on this work, it has had at one time or another the services of men today known everywhere for their contributions, such as William Chandler Bagley, Lotus D. Coffman, W. W. Charters, and B. R. Buckingham.

The attendance at the College has increased steadily from an enrollment of 87 the first year to 1,072 in the last year, when 391 bachelor and 55 master degrees were awarded.

DEAN ALBERT J. HARNO

ALBERT JAMES HARNO, Dean of the College of Law, was born in Holabird, South Dakota, January 30, 1889. He was graduated from Dakota Wesleyan University in 1911, from which school he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws in 1927. In 1914 he received his Bachelor of Law degree, magna cum laude, at Yale University. He practiced in Los Angeles until 1927, when he became Dean and Professor at Washburn College of Law in Topeka, Kansas. In 1919 he went to the University of Kansas as Professor of Law. He has served here as Professor of Law since 1921, and as Dean since 1922. This year he is serving as Provost of the University in addition to his deanship.

THE COLLEGE OF LAW

THE College of Law was organized and opened in September, 1897, offering a three-year course of training. In 1911, the entrance requirements was made one year of college work, and in 1915 it was increased to two years. Since 1929, admission has been granted only to graduates of colleges and universities of approved standing and to students in the University of Illinois of senior standing, the latter being permitted to elect courses in law for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or for the degree of Bachelor of Science.

The College of Law aims to prepare students for the legal profession, but in doing so it seeks also to promote legal scholarship and research, to develop an appreciation of the highest ideals of the profession, and to inspire the consciousness of the lawyer's responsibility to society. In response to an increasing demand for specialization in the practice of law, the College of Law has adopted a curriculum which permits a student to ground himself in the fundamentals of law, and yet specialize in any particular field of law into which he wishes to go.

DEAN REXFORD NEWCOMB

REXFORD NEWCOMB, Dean of the College of Fine and Applied Arts, was born at Independence, Kansas, on April 24, 1886. He received his Bachelor of Science degree at the University of Kansas, his Bachelor of Architecture degree and his Master of Architecture degree at the University of Illinois, and his Master of Arts degree at the University of Southern California. These studies were supplemented by travel in both Europe and the Orient. He was Director of the Department of Fine and Applied Arts, Long Beach, California, Polytechnic Institute, principal of the Long Beach Evening High School for four years, and has held professorships at Southern California, Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, and at the University of Illinois. He has been on the faculty in Architecture at the University of Illinois for fourteen years, and Professor of History of Architecture for ten years. He was appointed to his present position in 1932.

THE COLLEGE OF FINE AND APPLIED ARTS

THE College of Fine and Applied Arts, springing from the amalgamation of departments of the Architecture, the college of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and the School of Music, came into existence on the University Campus in September, 1931. The first semester found six hundred eighty-three students registered for instruction.

Under the leadership of President Emeritus Kinley, the plans for this grouping were perfected in 1930, and were consummated by President Chase as one of his early tasks. Fine Arts had their inception upon the campus as early as May, 1868, when the Board of Trustees of the then struggling Illinois Industrial University instituted curricula including Architecture, Fine Arts, and Landscape Gardening. Music early made its appearance at the University, with the result that at the first commencement in 1872 the University Band furnished the music. The planning of years culminated in the formation of the present college, the early results of which promise increased attendance and support in the future.

DEAN ARTHUR H. DANIELS

ARTHUR HILL DANIELS, Dean of the Graduate School, and Acting Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, was born in East Medway, Massachusetts, October 19, 1865. After receiving his Doctor of Philosophy degree from Clark University in 1893, he came to the University of Illinois as an instructor in philosophy and was promoted to a professorship in 1899. For a year and a half prior to the union of the College of Literature and Arts and the College of Science in 1913, he was Acting Dean of the former college. He is now for the third time serving as Acting Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. Since 1919 he has been connected with the office of the Graduate School as Assistant Dean for one year, Acting Dean for two years, and Dean since 1921.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

GRADUATE study began at the University of Illinois when its doors were first opened for instruction in 1868, but organized graduate instruction was first undertaken under the name "Graduate School" in 1892. In 1906, the School was reorganized, headed by a Dean and possessing a faculty appointed by the President. In its purpose to advance learning and to promote knowledge, the Graduate School provides opportunities for the training of teachers for high schools and colleges as well as for preparing investigators in the various fields of human interest and progress.

Its student body last year represented three hundred and fifteen colleges and universities, forty-five states, fourteen foreign countries, and included those who were seeking preparation for careers in arts and letters, agriculture, business, engineering, the industries, and the several professions.

DIRECTOR PHINEAS L. WINDSOR

PHINEAS LAWRENCE WINDSOR, Director of the University Library and the Library School, born February 21, 1871, at Chenoa, Illinois, has spent twenty-eight years in library work. He was graduated from Northwestern University in 1895, and studied at the New York State Library School from 1897 to 1899. On leaving there he began his active work as assistant in the New York State Library, but changed to the copyright office of the Library of Congress in 1900. In 1903 he became Librarian of the University of Texas, serving there until 1909, when he accepted his present position.

THE LIBRARY AND THE LIBRARY SCHOOL

THE University Library, through the General Library and its branches, provides the books needed by students for required reading for class work; it provides books for much of the students' general reading, such as those in the Browsing Room; it provides books for graduate students, who in writing theses often must consult many uncommon volumes; and it provides books the faculty need in their investigations. Not having all the books required, especially for the two latter classes of users, it borrows more than 500 books a year from libraries in other parts of the country.

The librarians organize the more than 870,000 volumes into a useable library, and give much assistance to students and faculty.

The Library School is a professional school for the training of librarians, and admits only college graduates, because a librarian's first need is a good, general education. Students come to it from every part of the country, and its graduates are in libraries similarly located.

DIRECTOR LAWRENCE W. MURPHY

LAWRENCE WILLIAM MURPHY, Director of the School of Journalism, was born in Madison, Wisconsin, on October 18, 1893. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Wisconsin, his Master of Arts degree from the University of North Dakota, and has done advanced graduate work at the Universities of Wisconsin and Illinois. Prior to coming to Illinois in 1924, he was engaged in the practice of journalism, military service, and the teaching of journalism. In 1924 he came to the University of Illinois as an assistant professor from the headship of the department of journalism at the University of North Dakota. In 1925 he was made director of the work in journalism at Illinois, and in 1927, when the School of Journalism was established, he was placed at its head.

THE SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM

THE School of Journalism has for its chief purpose the enlargement of vision and the preliminary professional training of students who show special aptitude for work in journalism and related fields. It was established as a college of the University by legislative act in 1927. Since that time it has grown until it is now one of the larger schools of the country. The graduating class numbers from forty to fifty students a year, and the enrollment, limited to juniors and seniors, averages well over one hundred each semester.

The work of the School includes service to the press of the state through the Journalism Conference, and it has a part in the programs of the Illinois Press Association, the Illinois College Press Association, the Illinois State High School Press Association, and the state organization of high school teachers of journalism and advisors of publications. The press of the state is now working for a new building for the School in which to house the classes, work rooms, and laboratories, and to provide quarters for the Editors' Hall of Fame.

FREDERICK BOGUE NOYES, Dean of the College of Dentistry, was born in Chicago on August 22, 1872. He was graduated from Beloit Academy in 1899, received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Johns Hopkins University in 1893, and that of Doctor of Dental Surgery in 1895 at Northwestern University. He began practicing dentistry in Chicago in 1895, specializing in Orthodontia since 1909. From 1897 to 1913 Doctor Noyes was Professor of Histology and Orthodontia in the University of Illinois College of Dentistry, serving in that capacity until 1926, when he succeeded to the deanship of the College of Dentistry.

THE COLLEGE OF DENTISTRY

THE College of Dentistry is making every effort to supply occupants for positions in hospitals and medical schools where the need is for men with a background in dentistry who can approach intelligently the large problems in these fields. The need for dentists with both professional and technical training has led to a change in the curriculum of the College of Dentistry. The entrance requirements have been increased to sixty hours, and more courses in medicine have been included in the dental curriculum. The graduate in dentistry is now equipped to act as a consultant in problems which involve both medicine and dentistry. These afford an attractive field of investigation to the student who wants to work in a field where the unknown and the unexplored offer endless possibilities for research. A graduate course in orthodontia leading to the degree of Master of Science has been offered in the College of Dentistry since 1922. The purpose of the course was the preparation of students for research. The course has now been so reorganized and extended that it prepares the student not only for research and teaching, but for the practice of orthodontia as a specialty. In order that highly personalized instruction may be given each registrant, the class is limited.

DEAN DAVID J. DAVIS

DAVID JOHN DAVIS, Dean of the College of Medicine, was born in Racine, Wisconsin, on August 10, 1875. He studied first at the Racine Academy, and later at the Universities of Wisconsin, Vienna, Frieberg, and Chicago. He served in the capacity of Pathologist at St. Luke's Hospital in 1911-13, and became Professor of Pathology and Bacteriology at the College of Medicine in 1913. He has written several treatises on Bacteriology, and is the author of other medical papers. He began serving as Acting Dean in April, 1925, and succeeded to the deanship in September, 1925.

THE COLLEGE OF MEDICINE

THE College of Medicine of the University of Illinois is the successor of the older College of Physicians and Surgeons which was founded in 1881 by a group of progressive and prominent medical men on the West Side of Chicago. In 1897 an affiliation between the College and the University of Illinois was made, and in 1913 the College of Medicine occupied the old building on the corner of South and Honoré and Harrison Streets. In 1901 it was moved to the High School building at 508 South Honoré Street, where it remained until this year. Last September, this building was abandoned in favor of the edifice which was erected on the corner of Polk and Lincoln Streets at a cost of $1,500,000.

The present enrollment in the College of Medicine is 602 undergraduates, while in the Graduate School 125 students are registered in the various medical specialties.

DEAN WILLIAM B. DAY

WILLIAM BAKER DAY, Dean of the School of Pharmacy, was born in Peru, Illinois, on February 15, 1871. He attended the Chicago College of Pharmacy, where he received his Graduate Pharmacist degree in 1892. Since that time he has been on the faculty of the School of Pharmacy. He served as an instructor until 1900, when he became a Professor of Histological Botany, and in 1913 Professor of Botany and Materia Medica. He served as Acting Dean from 1914 to 1919, when he assumed his present position.

THE SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

THE School of Pharmacy was incorporated as the Chicago College of Pharmacy in 1859, becoming the first school of pharmacy in the West. It established the pioneer pharmaceutical library, and published the first pharmaceutical journal west of the Alleghenies. Its members took an active part in founding the Illinois Pharmaceutical Association, which was responsible for the first pharmacy law. The college was united with the University of Illinois on May 1, 1896. In 1916, the University purchased for the School the property it now occupies. In 1925, the General Assembly appropriated $350,000 to erect and equip an additional building. Originally the course comprised two years of study, in 1926 it was lengthened to three, and in September, 1932, it will be composed of four, with the first year administered as a course in pre-pharmacy. The title of the School will at this time be changed to the College of Pharmacy. The alumni of the School, numbering over 3,000, are chiefly engaged in the practice of pharmacy, but physicians, dentists, teachers, journalists, chemists, wholesale druggists, and salesmen are also represented.

DEAN MARIA LEONARD

Outer Office

MISS MARIA LEONARD, Dean of Women, was born in Indianapolis, Indiana. She was graduated from Butler College in 1906, and received her Master of Arts degree at Colorado College in 1910. Since that time she has been constantly engaged in dean's work, having served as Dean of Women at Idaho State Normal College from 1910 to 1912, at Coe College, Iowa, from 1912 to 1923, and at the University of Illinois since the latter date.

THE OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF WOMEN

THE Office of the Dean of Women serves in an advisory capacity for the women of the University. Students come in for help and counsel on questions pertaining to study and scholarship, finances, student loans, home problems and responsibilities, personal and health adjustments, and vocational guidance for life work.

Miss Irene D. Pierson, Assistant Dean, acts as upper class advisor, meeting and conferring with house presidents. Miss Selma Olsen, who is taking Miss Mary Trenchard's place as freshman dean, advises and encourages first year women, helping them to become adjusted to the various phases of campus life. The interests of student life come over the threshold of the office daily through interviews and committee work reflecting personal and group matters, and it is the purpose of the office to further the development of individual and group life in the University, and to provide a desirable environment for women during the years of their college life.

ACTING DEAN FRED H. TURNER

FRED HAROLD TURNER, Acting Dean of Men, was born at Hume, Illinois, on March 22, 1900. He was graduated from the University of Illinois in 1922, and received his Doctor of Philosophy degree from the same institution in 1931. He became Assistant Dean of Men in 1922, and was appointed to his present position in 1931.

THE OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF MEN

THE Office of the Dean of Men is organized to advise and counsel the undergraduate men of the University. The members of the office staff are available at all times, and are interested in every phase of undergraduate life. The problems of individual students, of groups, large and small, and the multiplicity of unexpected situations which arise in connection with a large undergraduate body are the especial interest of the Dean and his assistants.

The office staff includes Dean Fred H. Turner, G. Herbert Smith, Assistant Dean of Men for Freshmen and Foreign Students, Charles R. Frederick, Assistant Dean of Men for Student Affairs, and Parker C. Livingston, Assistant to the Dean. These men are willing and anxious to assist undergraduate men to coordinate their scholastic and extra-curricular affairs. It is their hope that the office may serve as a clearing house for general information and as an aid to the men of the University. It is their sincere desire to help every man who wishes to avail himself of the services of the office.

DEAR HANK—

Campus was not the deserted place I imagined it would be when I blew into town. Everyone seems to be back, and what with rushing obligations, the two days before registration were pretty well filled.

The frosh this year seem to be pretty much on the mine-run side, but we appear to have collected two assets at least—financially speaking—in the process. One of them is a pretty good boy, as well.

Registration was the usual tribulation, although after four years one does perfect a certain technique which contributes to a little more speed and a good deal less worry.

YOU have heard by this time of the Michigan debacle last Saturday at Homecoming. It was pretty fierce!

But I suppose the Alumni were able to take some consolation from their reception by the campus. They jammed the streets for the Hobo Parade, poured into the Memorial Stadium at 2 o'clock, and proceeded to seek some slight liquid condolence later in the day.

We lost a Homecoming football game, and I imagine the grads will be yelping, but as one chap sitting behind me on the 35-yard line aptly remarked, "What else are Alumni for?"

DEAR FOLKS:

It's disgraceful of me not to have written sooner, but you must have seen by the papers that the Illini Indian hasn't had much to whoop about the past couple of weeks.

You didn't lose a great deal by not coming down for either Homecoming or Dad's Day, but I did hate to have Dad miss the latter. But unsuccessful as we may have been on the field of battle, we did ourselves rather proud in the way of putting up a brave front for enemies and friends alike. Hiding a broken heart beneath—welcome signs.

THE Wisconsin game reflects a little more glory upon Illinois than did the Michigan defeat, but still we lost. The one-point difference in score was a very fair indication of the strength of the two teams, I suppose—but what good did that do the Illinois fans who sat in the stands and saw the Illini once more bow before an opponent?

The band was grand, though. I think Ray put on his best show for the Dads who came down this year, and this Illiniwek chap gets better with every game. Say hello to Johnny.

There's nothing much your big brother can do about it except hope you'll be up and around before—oh, even before that! But I'm afraid I can't feel so very sorry for you when I picture you missing school, reading all the story-books Dad's bringing you, and gloating a little over Jimmy and the rest of the gang. Sorry for you? I should say not! Don't you think it's Jimmy who should be pitied?

And don't you worry your head about that football game. Dad and I will find some way of getting you, cast and all, into the car and over to the field. Neither he nor I would have any fun without you along. Does that make it all right?

PAT DARLING—

The campus seems dreary since you've gone. But then it may have merely fallen to its old level, and the contrast makes it dull.

It's truly a different place when you are here, but how it changes or just why is more than I can say. Or perhaps I do know why. . . .

The Prom, the week-end, and you seem to have in memory a quality of exaltation unlike anything else I've known except the moments I so pleasantly associate with you. They certainly are rare enough, my dear. Do they ever bore you?

I SEEM somehow to have walked off with that green handkerchief of yours. I think I'll keep it here until you come again—perhaps its recovery may be a greater inducement than my invitation.

My attempts at studying for the Poli Sci exam Sunday weren't very successful; I kept thinking somehow about that bus which carried you off earlier in the afternoon. So Bill and I hiked off to a show—and I darned near flunked the exam!

I'm not so sure about the State Formal, Pat. But short of a broken arm, I'll be there!

This won't be a long letter—just a note to crow a little over our recent accomplishment. Conference Champs? Yes, you are!

It was a swell game, from our point of view. And you can have no idea of the infinite satisfaction we derived from taking you boys down a notch. Get cocky with us, will you?

DEAR HANK—

You're perfectly right: I'm all the things you called me, and a whole lot more. But don't you find it hard to steal the time from books and the operetta to write those voluminous letters which you claim I never answer?

It isn't that I don't want to write—you know that, or you wouldn't take the trouble to bawl me out. But it seems that in the maze of studying, this cursed Union committee, and the little socializing I do, I can't find the time or the proper mood in which to tell you all I'm thinking.

HANK, I can't imagine anything nicer than to spend another one of those two-week vacations with you and the woods and no one else around. Two weeks in which we could find a lake to pitch a tent beside, and fish a bit, and lay back beneath the trees and the warm sun and talk over all the things which have happened to us and our minds during the past four years. I wonder how much we've changed? I wonder how much college has really given us, and what its value will be?

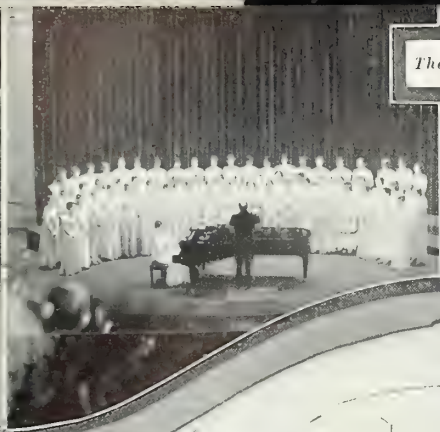

Let me hear from you—which is more than I deserve.

President Chase Speaks at His Inaugural

Ooh! Governor Emmerson, President Barr, President Chase!

PAT SWEETHEART—

There is the loveliest moon of the spring shining outside my window. And when I finish this letter, I'm going out to tramp around the campus for a time. I'm afraid I'm getting a little sentimental about leaving this old place.

A month ago I couldn't wait to be graduated. There seemed to be something wasteful about spending any more days here. But as the weeks have passed, that feeling has worn off and been replaced by something which has very slightly the poignance of sorrow. The past four years have been happy ones.

I THINK the same feeling comes to all of us, at one time or another. I remember that last year's graduates were somehow eager to find excuses for staying on campus a few days longer than necessary. They had so many last-minute obligations to wind up. But chiefly I think they had four years of emotions to reorganize, and ponder, and store up in memory. That's what I would like to do tonight: arrange my feelings about Illinois so that in years to come the beauties and the ugliness will have their proper value.

GEORGE A. HUFF

Huff as he appeared when playing baseball for Illinois

George Huff was born June 11, 1872, on a farm near Champaign. Receiving his preparatory education in Champaign and at Englewood high school in Chicago, he came to the University of Illinois in 1889. Baseball, which has always been his favorite sport, was his first campus activity. He played catcher on the Varsity baseball team for four years, 1889, 1890, 1891, and 1893, and was captain and manager for the last two.

He played center on the first football team at Illinois in the fall of 1890, returning to the squad again in 1892. In 1893 he entered Dartmouth, where he was a member of the football team and was elected captain of the baseball team.

In 1895 he returned to the University as Assistant Director of Athletics. With the establishing of a more extensive program of physical education and athletics in 1924, he was appointed Director of Physical Welfare.

Although he coached football for several years, he soon relinquished this work, but remained as baseball coach for 24 years, during which his teams won 11 championships and tied for another.

Among Illinois players who won fame in the major leagues were the late Jake Stahl, manager of the World's Champion Boston Red Sox in 1907, and Carl Lundgren, present Varsity baseball coach, who was for seven years a pitcher for the Chicago Cubs.

In 1920, Mr. Huff retired from coaching. Under his administration, intramural athletics have been fostered, the physical education program has been broadened and liberalized, and Illinois teams have maintained the fine spirit of sportsmanship instituted by "G" when he first came here as a player.

In the communities of Champaign and Urbana Mr. Huff holds a position of high respect. As a civic leader in all the problems that confront the twin communities, he maintains the same unswerving loyalty to his task that characterized him on the gridiron or the diamond. Faithful and conscientious, he stands a monument to everything that comes under his guiding hand. He is a leader, and yet, the servant of the people.

CHEERLEADING and the Illini Code of Sportsmanship are integral parts of every athletic affair on the Campus.

Varsity cheerleaders are elected by the Athletic Council. With their agile antics and leather lungs, they lead the crowds in noisy approval of the athletes on the gridiron, hardwood, or diamond. They also see that the officials are not scorned, at least audibly, that announcements of interest to the crowd are brought to their attention, and that the crowd conducts itself in accordance with the Code of Illini Sportsmanship.

SKATING RINK

Ice Basketball

The new University Ice Skating Rink, which was started in March, 1931, and completed soon after school convened this fall, is one of the three largest of its kind in the world. Plans for the rink were instigated by G. Huff, who has long felt the need of more adequate recreational facilities for students during the winter months. It was built entirely from revenue obtained from football, and was erected at a cost of $300,000.

The rink affords 24,000 square feet of skating surface, and will accommodate 1,000 skaters. In connection with the skating area there are a lunch room, a lounge, check room, and lockers.

Several ice exhibitions were given during the year under the sponsorship of Beekley Miller, manager of the rink. During the second semester, ice skating was added to the physical education curriculum under the direction of Miller and other members of the physical education department. The attendance record approximated 70,000 over a season of five months.

THE ATHLETIC

THE Hall of Fame was inaugurated by The Illio of 1932 to give recognition to those athletes who have been outstanding in their field of endeavor and who, through their ability, have brought recognition to the University.

GEORGE FENCL, possessor of three letters each in baseball, basketball, and soccer, is a member of Ma-Wan-Da and Sachem, and is considered the finest all-around athlete on campus.

FRANK PURMA is the campus giant. He puts the shot, throws the discus, and is captain of the Varsity track team. Beside this large assignment, he played tackle on the Varsity football team. He is a member of Ma-Wan-Da.

GIL BERRY, captain-elect of the Varsity football team, displayed a fine fighting spirit throughout a turbulent football season. As the only triple-threat man of whom the Varsity could boast, he took care of most of the running, passing, and kicking in the eight games last season.

EDDIE TRYBAN, a member of Sachem and Ma-Wan-Da, shares the captaincy of the Varsity baseball team with George Mills. He is a fast infielder, throws accurately to any corner of the diamond, and is one of the surest hitters on the team.

HALL OF FAME

THE selection of these men was made after much deliberation by four prominent members of the Illinois coaching staff.

GEORGE MILLS, co-captain of the Varsity baseball team and Coach Lundgren's most reliable hurler, won more games during last year's season than any other pitcher on the staff, abetting his fine performances on the mound with consistent work at bat.

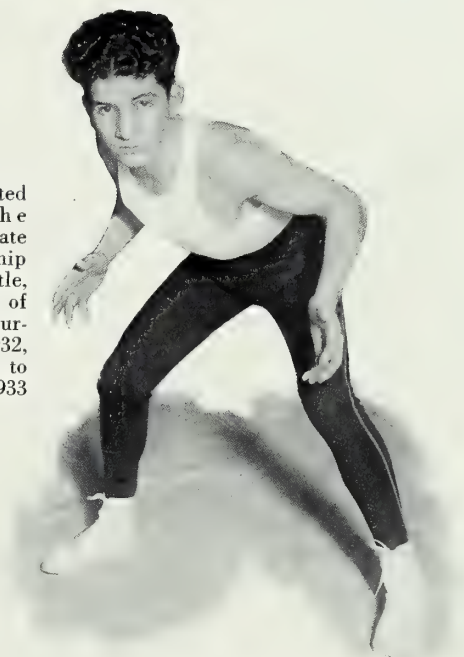

FRED FRINK, who showed his greatest ability on the gridiron, was chosen by his team-mates as the most valuable player on the 1931 squad. He is the only sophomore to be elected to the Hall of Fame.

DEAN WOOLSEY captained the Varsity cross-country team for two years, and doubled as the star distance runner on the cinders. He has four letters in track and cross-country, and is a member of Sachem.

JOE PUERTA decorated himself with the national intercollegiate wrestling championship and the Big Ten title, served as co-captain of the Varsity team during the season of 1932, and was re-elected to that post for the 1933 season.

VARSIY FOOTBALL

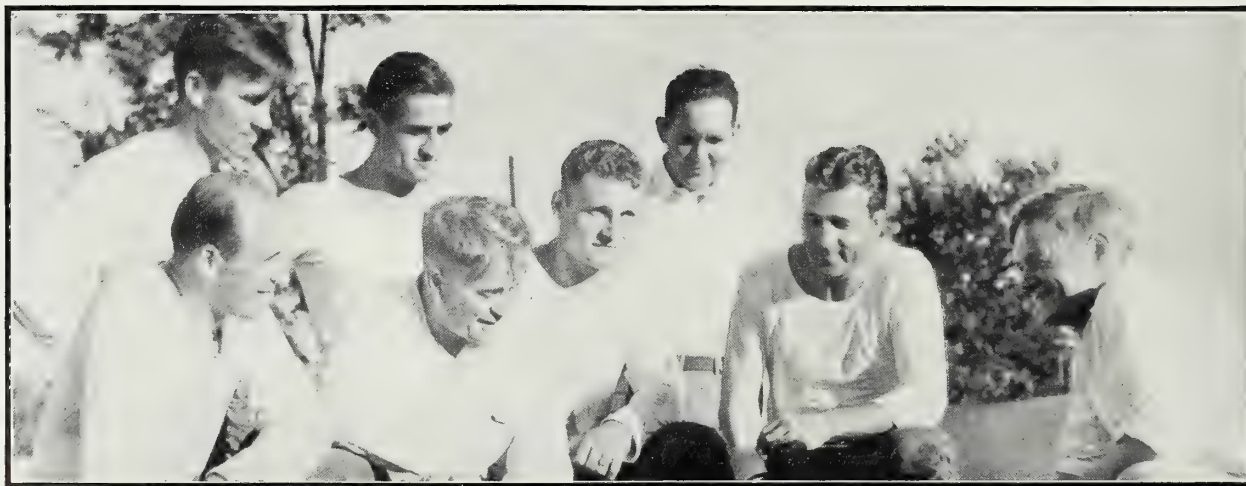

"THE Fighting Illini" team never more fully deserved that name than did the 1931 edition of the Illinois football squad. The Varsity, despite repeated setbacks, came into each successive game as if they had a clean slate and were battling to keep it unsullied.

When Coach Bob Zuppke began to piece together his team in the spring practice, he seemed to have a combination which would click. Then, before the opening of the season, Captain Pete Yanuskus was declared ineligible for competition. This blow was a serious one to the team's morale.

The "Dutch Master" was faced with the problem of building a team out of inexperienced material. As a result, he was forced to do a great deal of experimenting and shifting with his men in order to hit upon a winning combination. He seemed to have done this in the Purdue game, when the team only let up momentarily to permit their opponents to make one score.

The Indians then came up against Northwestern and Michigan, and these league leaders decisively defeated the Illinois rookies. In the next game, against Wisconsin, Zup seemed to have found the winning combination, but a kick went astray and the team was forced to take a one-point defeat. Battered and bruised, the Illini ended the season by losing to Chicago and Ohio State.

FOOTBALL MANAGERS

A SENIOR manager, two juniors, and a staff of sophomore assistants handle the training equipment, transportation problems, and hotel reservations of the Varsity football squad. Usually from twelve to fifteen men make up the sophomore staff. Their duties are composed largely of managing the equipment and keeping a record of each player. The juniors oversee the sophomores and assign the work to them. Junior managers are elected by competition after a year's trial experience as a member of the sophomore staff.

The senior manager is chosen from the two juniors by the University Athletic Council. He travels with the team on all their trips. George Huff is largely responsible for the managerial system now used, which makes the senior manager's position one of the most coveted on the campus.

CASEY STRAW played in the backfield in high school, but this fall he was used mostly at center to help bolster up the line. Casey is a versatile football player and proved valuable this fall when Zup needed a man to plug up a gap. Straw turned in his best performance in the Michigan game, in which his blocking stood out prominently.

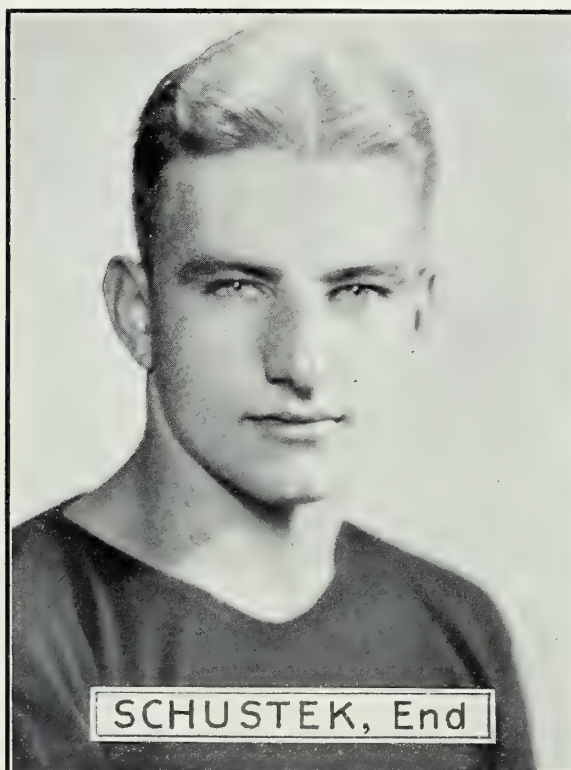

STRAW, Center

LIN MURRAY played his first season for the Illini, and despite his injuries he turned in a creditable showing. Lin started the season at the center post. Later, when Schultz was injured, Murray was converted into a fullback, because of his speed and defensive ability. Murray will be back next year.

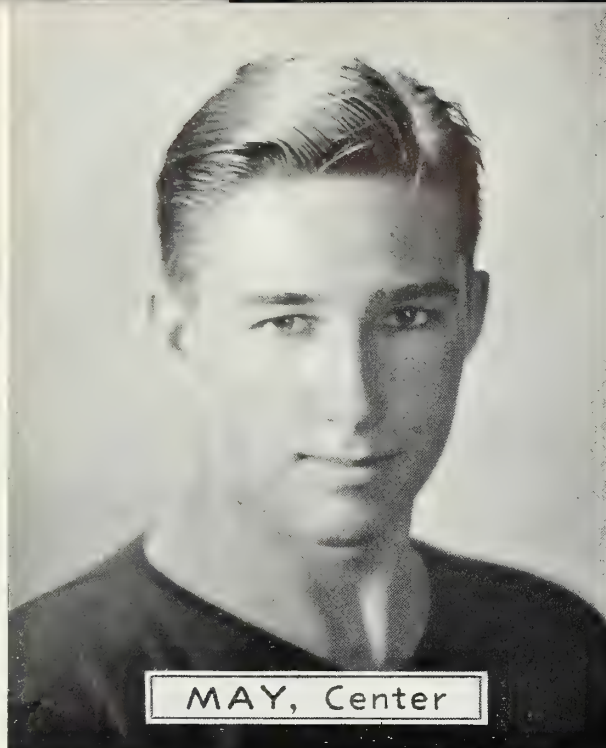

MURRAY, Center and Full Back

IVAN SCHUSTEK, playing his first season for Zuppke at one of the end positions, showed up well as a defensive player since there were very few ball carriers that ever got outside of him. With Schustek and Frink back, Zuppke should feel satisfied that the end posts will be well taken care of next fall.

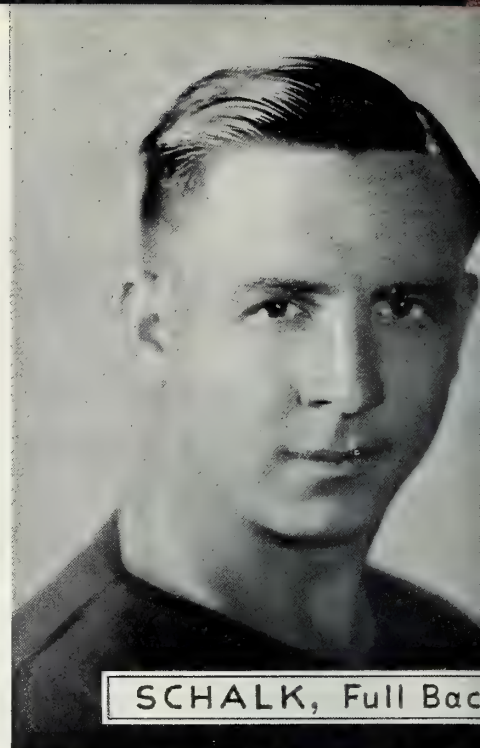

SCHUSTEK, End

MAY, Center

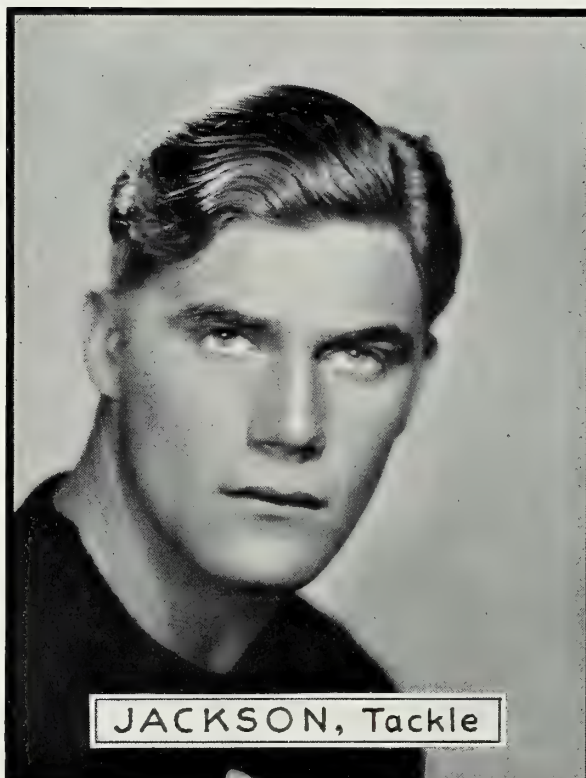

BOB MAY, another sophomore who muscled into the spotlight during his first year of competition, is the brother of "Horse" May, lanky center on the varsity basketball team last year. Bob played center and guard with equal facility, and although he weighed under 190 pounds, he was one of the hardest driving men in the forward wall.

ED SCHALK is another of the fullback division who could burrow his way through the opposing line when there appeared to be no opening ahead of him. He is a native of Champaign, and was one of the forty-odd men who had their first taste of varsity competition during the past season.

SCHALK, Full Back

JACKSON, although not a natural athlete, turned in a very successful season at tackle on Zuppke's eleven. He was not outstanding, but was very consistent and a very hard worker. Jackson was best adapted to crashing through the line and bringing the ball carrier down.

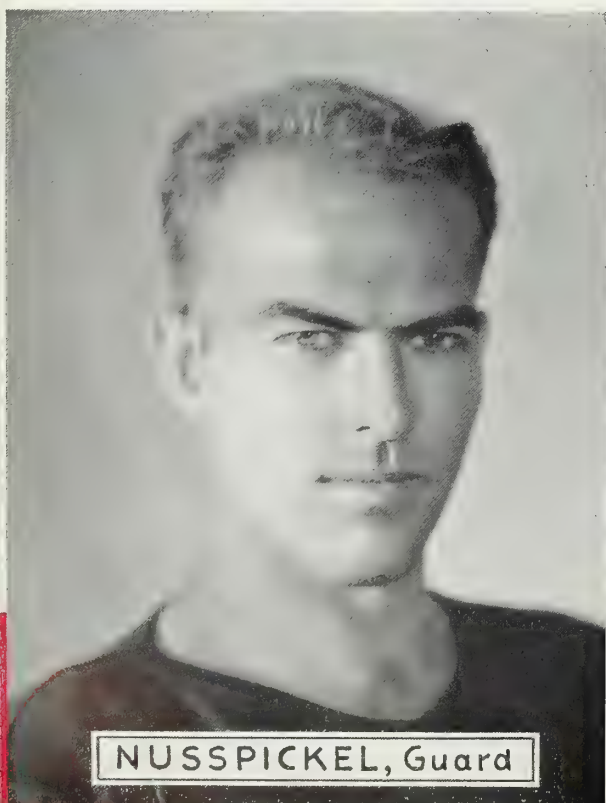

JACKSON, Tackle

ACK BODMAN won a letter last year at one of the guard posts, and reded this year. Ack, one of the blocking guards on the squad, played his game of the season against Chicago.

RAY NUSSPICKEL, who spends his spring days training with the varsity baseball squad, is one of the graduating lettermen whose absence from the lineup will be keenly felt next fall. Ray shouldered and pushed his way into almost every play that came within his territory as a guard, and even made it a point to step out of that position if he saw an opportunity to lay his hairy fist on the ball carrier.

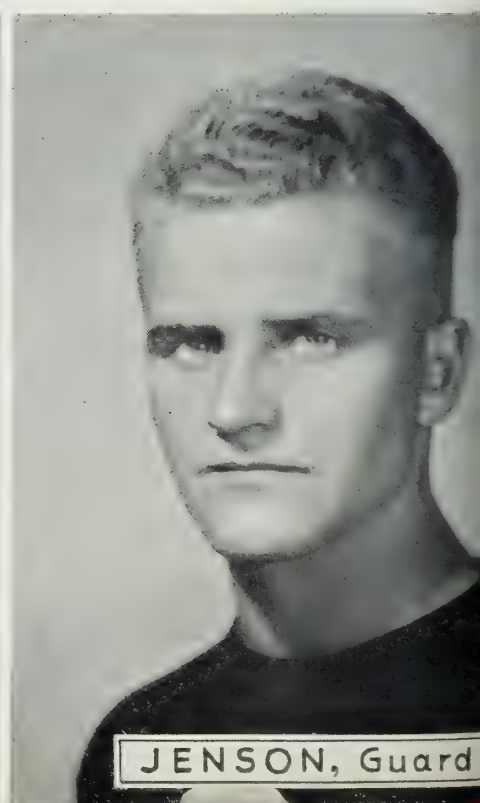

STAN JENSON, performing for his second year as a regular, was always to be seen bobbing in and out along the line in scrimmage, sans headgear. In addition to this peculiarity he had a habit of talking incessantly and gently twitting the opposing team. He was one of the lightest guards who served throughout the season.

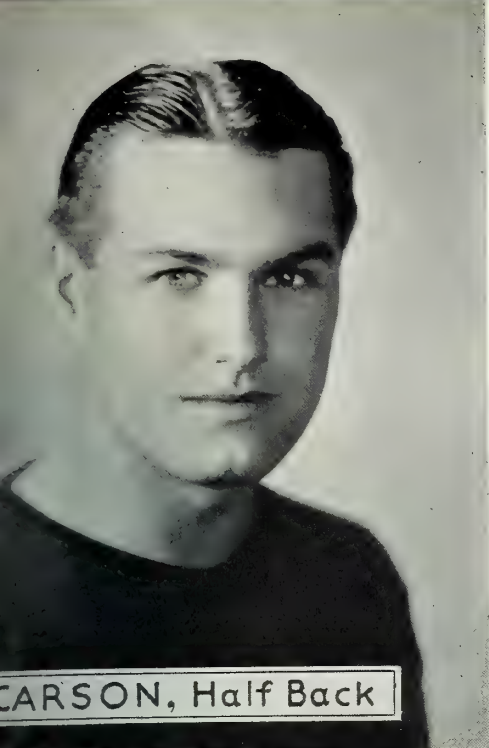

NUSSPICKEL, Guard

BODMAN, Guard

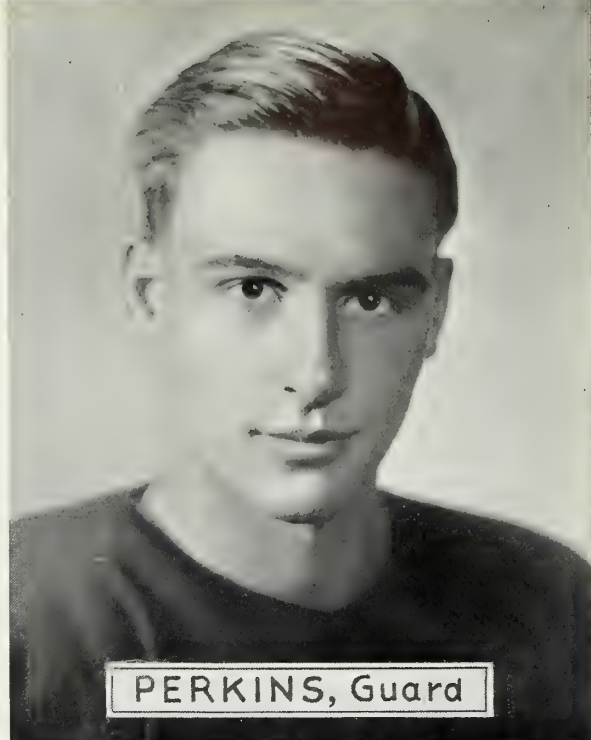

JENSON, Guard

CARSON, Half Back

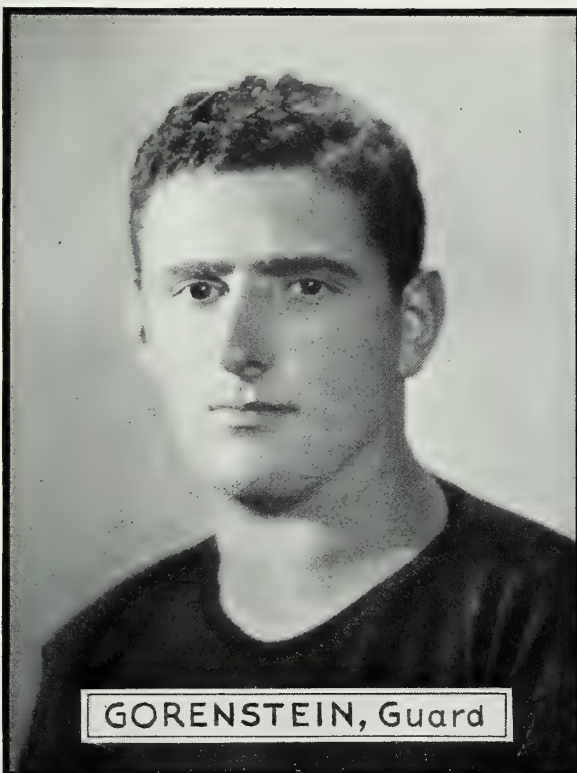

PAUL CARSON, a sophomore halfback with a taste for track, did his best work toward the middle of the season. Not a flashy player, but one who could be depended upon to see his duty and do it, Carson was consistently in there fighting it out with his opponents.

BERNON PERKINS, alias number 41, is a hulking sophomore guard who came up from the freshman team last year. Huddled between center and tackle, Perkins had small opportunity to really stand out as a star, but he played a good, steady brand of football, and could be relied upon in the pinches.

PERKINS, Guard

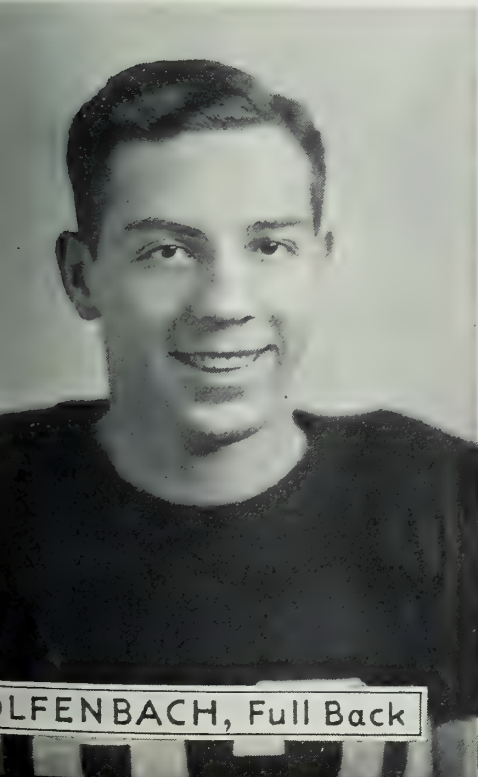

OKEEFE is a fighter through and through. Although exceptionally small for a lineman he won a place in the center of the line. His determination and ability overcame his stature, and he was able to penetrate consistently the heavier lines of opposing teams.

GORENSTEIN, Guard

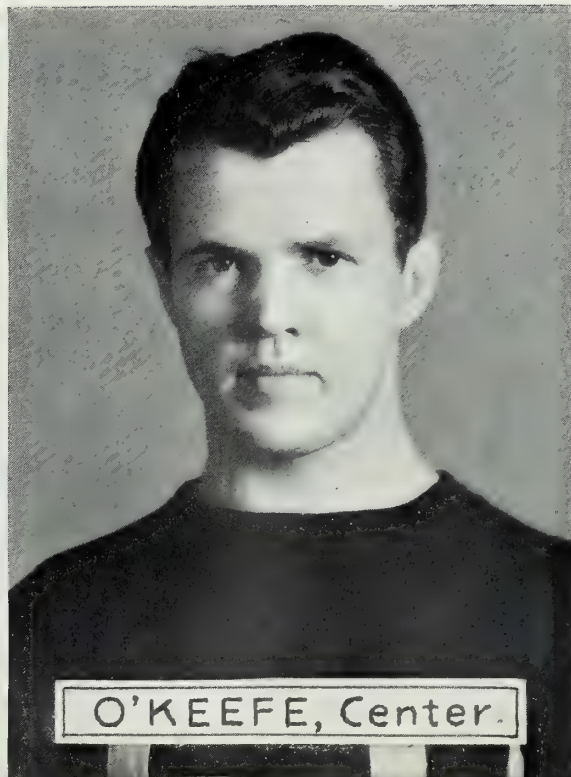

SAM GORENSTEIN, burly 203 pound guard, and Stan Jensen, the swashbuckling Swede who took care of the other guard position, were known to Zuppke as "Potash and Perlmutter," because of their utter inseparability. They were tough customers, and sometimes proved unpleasantly boisterous to their opponents in the matter of pushing and shoving.

EDWARD KOLFENBACH came out for the football team about three weeks after the practice season had started, and showed plenty of stuff by way of line smashes and plunges. After Zuppke's regular fullbacks had retired to the sidelines with various injuries, Ed was given a try at the post and performed capably enough to gain himself a better and recognition among the sports writers.

KOLFENBACH, Full Back

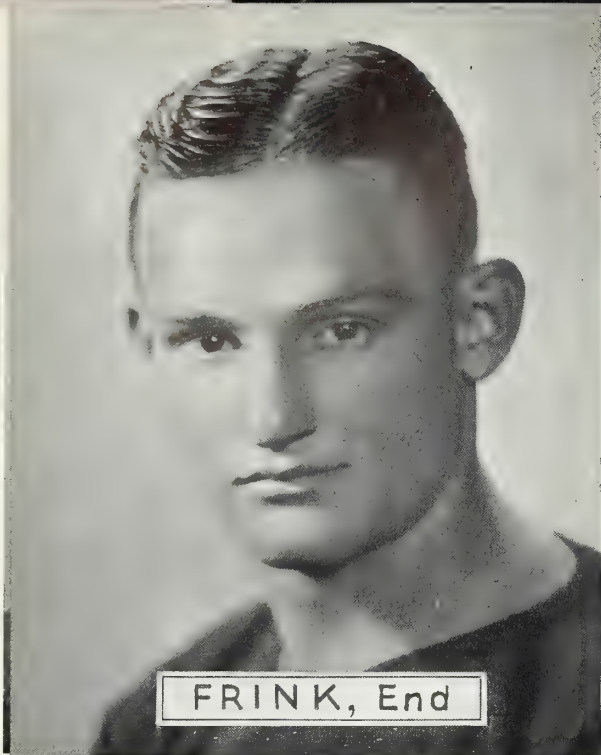

BOB HORSLEY, the man who had the smallest feet on the squad and who weighed only 149 pounds, proved to all critics that he made up for his lack of avoirdupois with tremendous qualities of staunch fighting courage. When the opposing lineman was not too tall to see over, Bob could sling a pass directly into the hands of a receiver.

O'KEEFE, Center

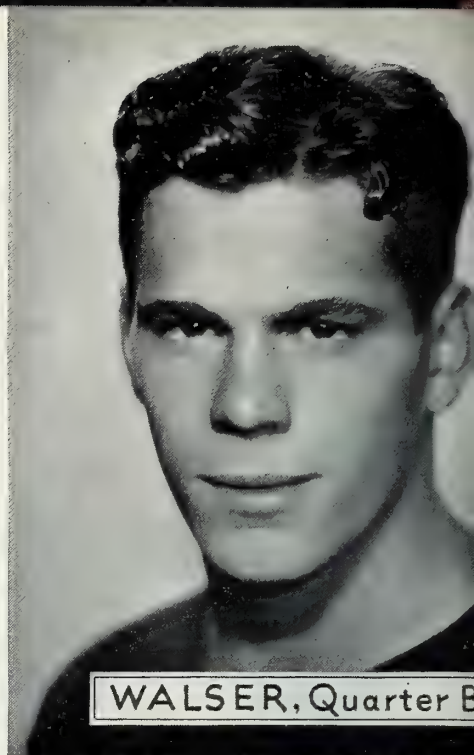

HORSLEY, Quarter Back

FRINK, End

FRED FRINK, elected the most valuable man to the squad for the season of 1931, was the backbone of the line in spite of the fact that he played one of the wing posts. He received mention in several all-conference selections as one of the outstanding ends in the Middle West, and was one of the most popular men on the squad with the fans because of his deadly tackling and ability to pick passes out of the air with his thumb and finger.

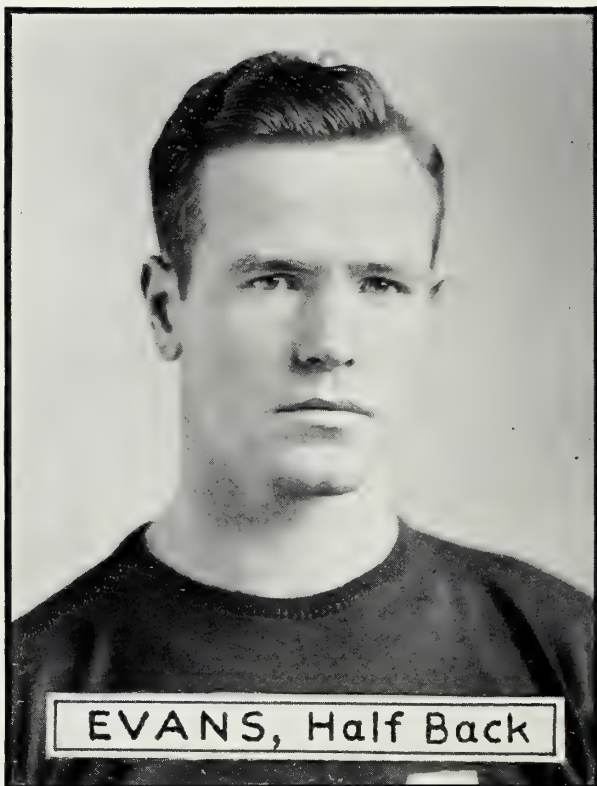

HERMIE WALSER, a sophomore, played quarterback a good deal of the time. He was probably the best blocker on the team, standing out on defense and his ability to run interference. This was especially true in the Northwestern game which was his best performance of the year. He traded with Berry on the punting assignment when both were in the game.

WALSER, Quarter B

FUZZY EVANS, one of the four graduating lettermen on the squad, was one of the hardest tacklers in the backfield, and could easily be distinguished when he was carrying the ball by his twinkling feet and his manner of throwing back his head to survey the field before darting around end or off tackle.

SCOTT MARRINER is another boy who was not content to bask in the reflected glory of his big brother. Les Marriner, the brother in question, created quite a reputation as an amateur boxer while in school, and later entered the professional ring where his conquests were numerous and successful. Scott held down the end post, and was a product of last year's promising freshman squad.

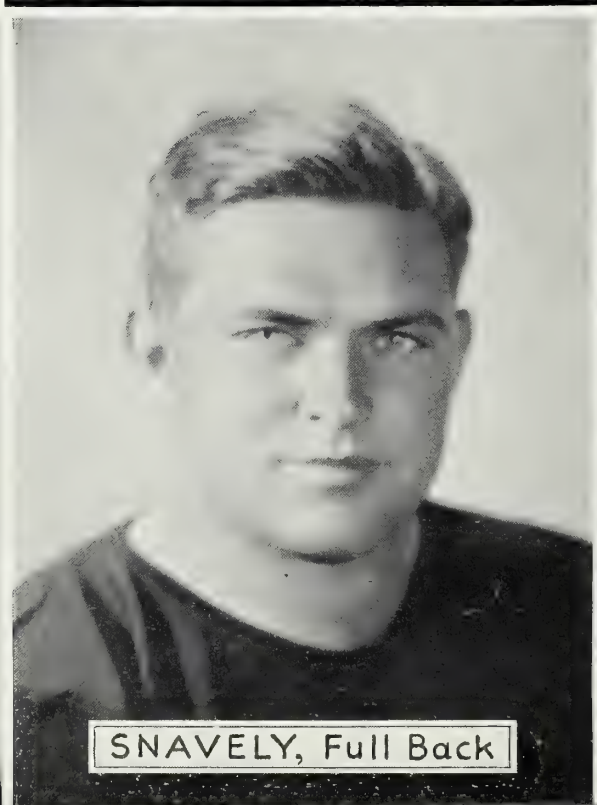

EVANS, Half Back

ED SNAVELY, serving his first term on varsity team, was the heaviest man Zuppke's string of seven full-fledged backs. With a plunge like a fast-moving wagon, he performed in spectacular fashion against Coach Hanley's Wildcats, and perhaps the only man who could pierce center of the Purple's powerful forward

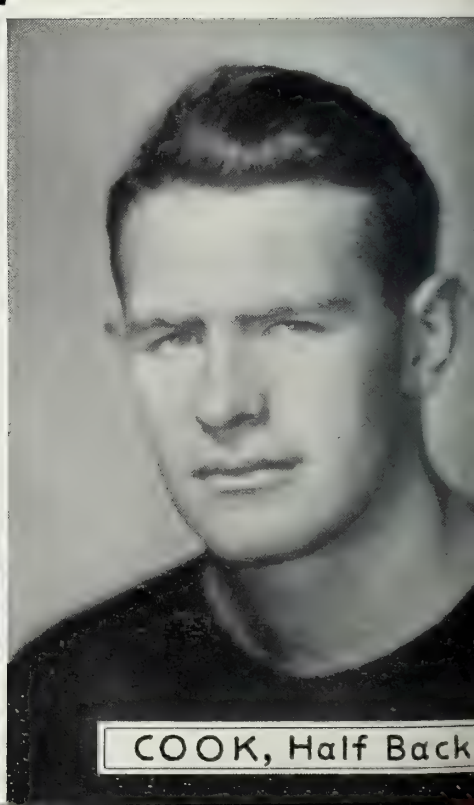

DAVE COOK, a surprisingly bulky player to find in a halfback position, followed the footsteps of his father, Jim Cook, '03, when he took up the pastime of football. The elder Cook was an outstanding star on the gridiron around 1900, and brought young David up to enjoy the thrill of the game and the feel of another fellow's foot in your eye.

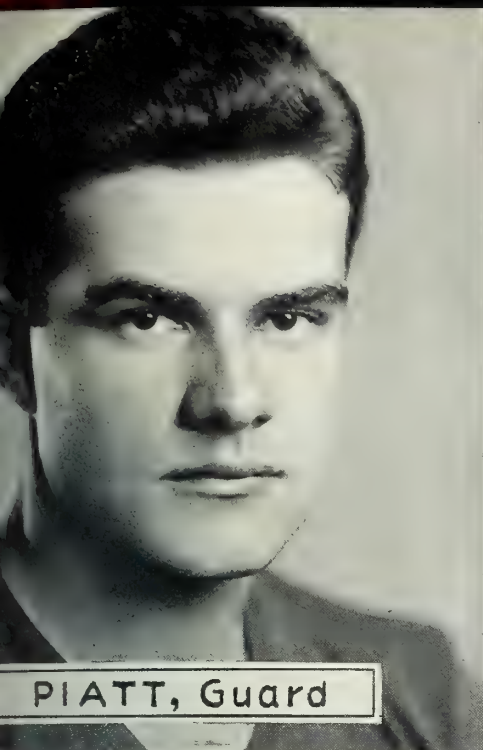

MARRINER, End and Tackle

SNAVELY, Full Back

COOK, Half Back

PIATT, Guard

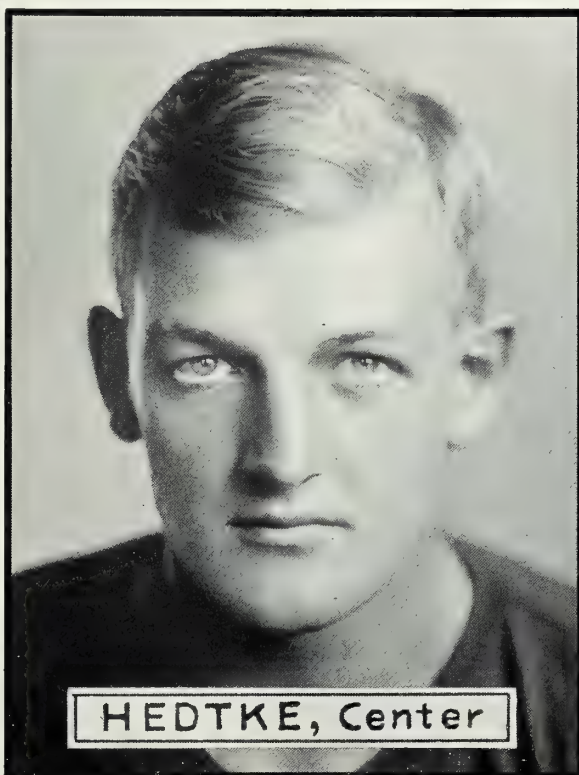

LIN PIATT is a sophomore on the squad and one of the five men to scale over two hundred pounds in their stocking feet. His bulk proved to be an obstacle to hard driving backs who attempted to smash a hole through his position at guard.

KENNEDY, Tackle

KENNEDY played tackle on this year's aggregation, and proved to be most valuable on defense. His best performance was in the Wisconsin game, in which he crashed through the line and blocked a punt. This is Kennedy's last year with the team. He hails from Dixon, Illinois.

GORDON BAILEY, a second year man on the squad, shared with nine others the burden of the end positions, but is only one of four to earn a letter at that post. His best playing was done during the early games of the season, but he was consistently in the thick of things throughout.

HEDTKE, Center

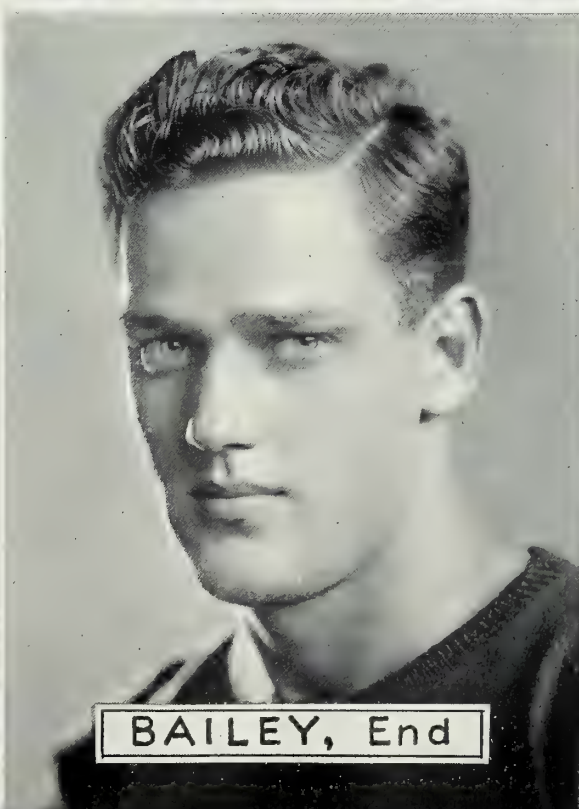

DICK O'NEILL, one of the two men on the varsity squad whose names are outstandingly Irish, was one of the "Dutch Master's" most outstanding sophomore tackles. Merely a glance at his name tells one that his football playing is featured by a great deal of fight and gusto. His home town is Iowa.

BILL HEDTKE, a brawny, burly sophomore who has functioned as a center ever since his sophomore year at Thornton Township High School, played his best game in the Conference opener at Purdue. Weighing 197 pounds in the raw, he presents a solid resistance to opposing backfield men.

CLIFF HYINK, 203 pounds of right tackle, saw his first service on the varsity last fall, and showed many a dazed opponent to what advantage a set of beefy hips and shoulders could be put by way of clearing a path for an off-tackle smash, or smearing a play on the right side of the line. Hyink played consistently well all year.

Above—Leaving his interference behind, Gil Berry slips through the entire St. Louis team for a touchdown in the season's opener in the Memorial Stadium before a crowd of students and 4,000 Boy Scouts, who were guests of the Athletic Association. In this game, Dave Cook accounted for two touchdowns.

Above—Esterdahl of Bradley scurries around right end for a short gain in a non-Conference contest with the Peoria team, won by the Illini gridgers, 20-0, for their second victory of the season. Berry, Evans and Snively pushed the ball over for Illinois' touchdowns, with Walser and Horsley contributing the extra points.

Above—St. Louis players and the "Fighting Illini" make a mad scramble after a loose ball which escaped the grasp of an Illini back in the opening quarter of the game. The Billikens were unable to convert this wild break into a score, and the Illini won the encounter 20 to 6.

Above—Fred Frink snares a pass from Horsley in the Purdue game at Ross-Ade Stadium, Lafayette, Ind. This was the first Conference contest for the Illini and the second game of the season, and with a full quota of fresh, unbattered men the Illini played one of the best games of the year against the team which later became champion of the Big Ten, holding the stalwart Purdue aggregation to 7 to 0.

Left—Moss of Purdue gets out into the open for a sizeable gain in the second period. Well co-ordinated interference and clever mixing up of running plays, plunges, and passes all contributed to give Purdue a 7-0 edge over the Illinois team. Purvis pushed over the Boilermakers' lone score, and Hecker added the extra point.

ALL

Above—Purvis of Purdue tries a ramble around right end, but is stopped quickly by Fred Frink. After this encounter, Illinois was predicted to have the strongest line in the Conference by leading sports writers. Hecker, brilliant young sophomore, was the star from the Purdue angle.

Above—Fuzzy Evans takes the ball and gallops away for a nice gain in the second period of the scuffle with Wisconsin on Dad's Day, November 7, in the Memorial Stadium. Berry and Horsley baffled the Badgers with a heavy barrage of passes for almost the entire encounter, but did not succeed in tossing their way to a victory after the score stood 7-6 in favor of the Cardinals.

Right—Berry (10), star Illini half back, is shown as he was being dragged down by two Wisconsin men after he had sifted through almost the entire Badger team for a gain of 25 yards. An unsuccessful try for a point after touchdown spelled defeat for the Varsity after they had fought the Badger horde on even terms throughout the game.

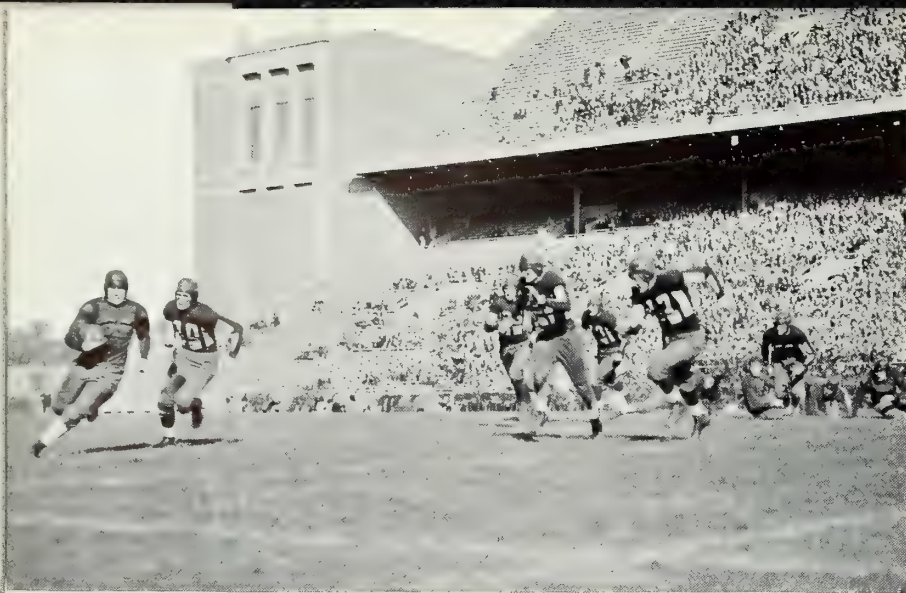

Above—Schneller of Wisconsin slides off tackle and heads for the open field, making a good gain. Schneller scored Wisconsin's only touchdown, with Linfor making the extra point to give the Badgers the victory. Gregory Kabat, Wisconsin's giant guard, smeared the play that cost the Illini their point after touchdown.

Above—Dave Cook, stalwart Illini half back, attempts to skirt Michigan's right end, but is brought down at the line of scrimmage. Cook's speed was greatly cut down during most of the season because of a leg injury which he received in the opening game with St. Louis.

Above—No. (35) of Michigan lugs the ball around right end for a short gain. Berry (10), Frink (20) and Hedtke (17) are closing in to cut him down in the Homecoming game, October 25, in the Memorial Stadium. Berry and Frink were the outstanding Illini warriors in this fray, while Fay, Heston, Kowalik and Newman aided and abetted the cause of the Wolverines.

Above—The Illini line holds fast as Olsen attempts to slash through in the last half. Illinois was slow in getting started in the first period, and the powerful Northwestern machine swept over and through the shifting Illini forward wall. A determined stand was made in the last of the encounter, and an aerial attack by the Orange and Blue culminated in a touchdown when Frink took a pass from Berry and fell over the goal-line for Illinois' only score.

Above—Dave Cook, carrying the ball, makes a spectacular effort to outrun the Wolverines on a sweeping play around end. On this play the Illini interference was completely swept aside by the hard-driving Michigan linesmen, and Cook was left unprotected. The larger Michigan team swept the Illini off their feet and carried home a 35 to 0 victory.

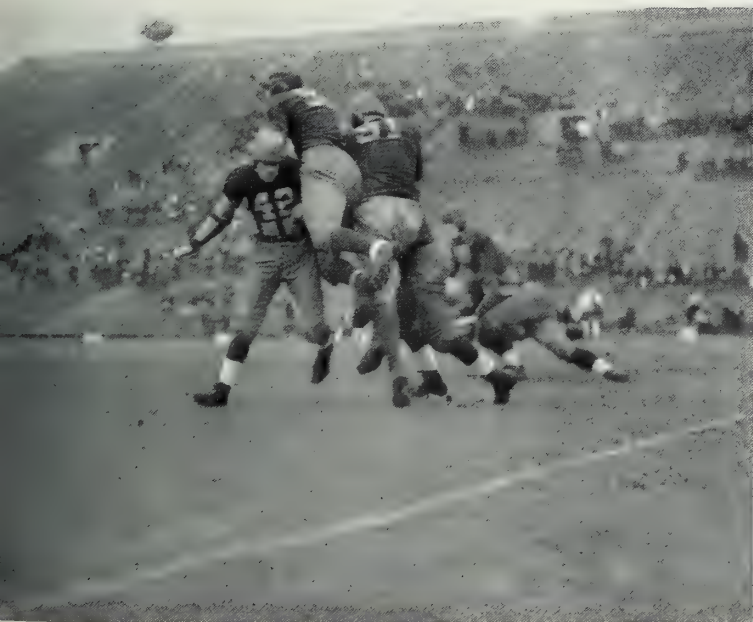

Above—Murray is brought down by two Chicago men just after receiving a short lob from Berry. Frink and Schustek were the outstanding players in the line, repeatedly driving the Maroons back when they attempted sallies around the ends. Zenner and Wiseman dominated the line for the Chicago Varsity.

Left—Berry getting under way early in the second quarter for a tour around end with Herman Walser (42) running interference. Later in the game Snively crashed through the center of the Wildcats' line for repeated gains with Hedtke opening up sizeable holes ahead of him. This attempted march down the field was checked by an Illini fumble near the Mid-stripe.

ALL

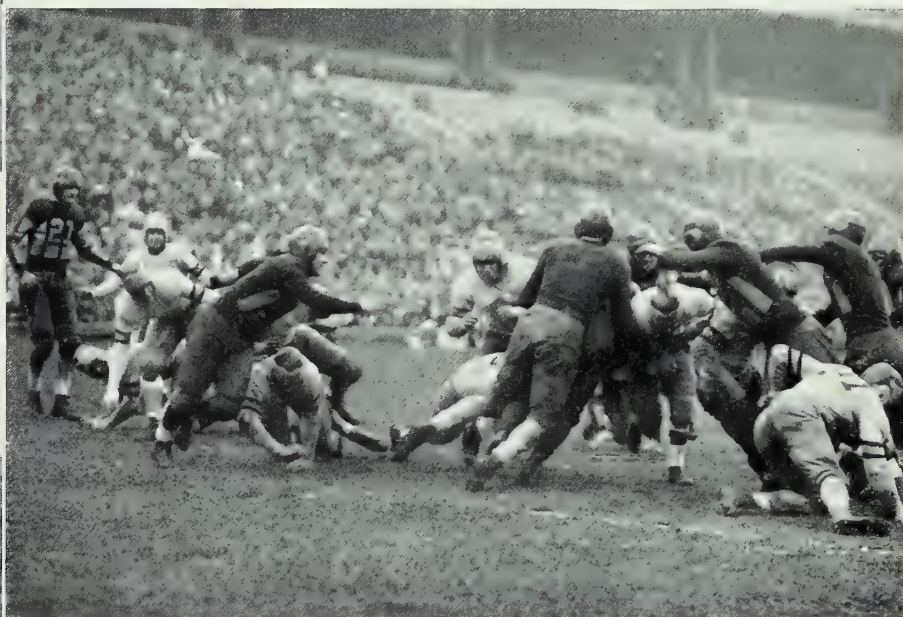

Above—Anybody's ball—Grabel (23) of Chicago loses his grip on the ball when Nusspickel (38) and Kennedy (47) jar him heavily just after he receives a lateral pass from Stagg. Chicago's two touchdowns were taken over by Sahlin and Hamberg with Wien, curly Maroon end, putting the ball between the goal posts for the extra point.

Above—Berry boosts a long punt over the head of Indiana's safety man in the "Round-Robin" charity tournament, Thanksgiving Day at Stagg Field in Chicago. The ball bounced outside on the 3-yard line of Indiana. Walser and Evans are taking out the intruding crimson linesmen in one of the most perfect exhibitions of blocking ever captured by the camera.

Above—Fuzzy Evans smacks Sahlin of Chicago after he had cracked through the Illini line in the second period. Inconsistent play in the line gave Chicago a 13-6 victory over the Varsity for their first win in over 20 Conference engagements. Jensen made the only Illinois score when he recovered a blocked punt over the goal-line.

Above—This is a remarkable view of one of Ohio's powerful line plays. Cook (22) is shown backing up the line and stopping Carroll of Ohio for no gain. Carroll climbed over and through the Illini defense to score three touchdowns, while Cramer contributed two and Holcomb one, to pile up the score.

Right—Cramer breaks through the Illinois line and is brought down by Evans in the Ohio State Homecoming game at Columbus, Ohio. Paralyzing power drives, using Carroll and Cramer, racked the Illini line to give Ohio a 40-0 shutout, Illinois' worst defeat in many years.

THE 1931-32 basketball season was marked by flashes of brilliant play and by spasmodic spells of ragged basketball, which were finally overcome to land the Illini in the first division. The Rubymen lost several heartbreaking one-point games, and were only twice defeated by more than three points.

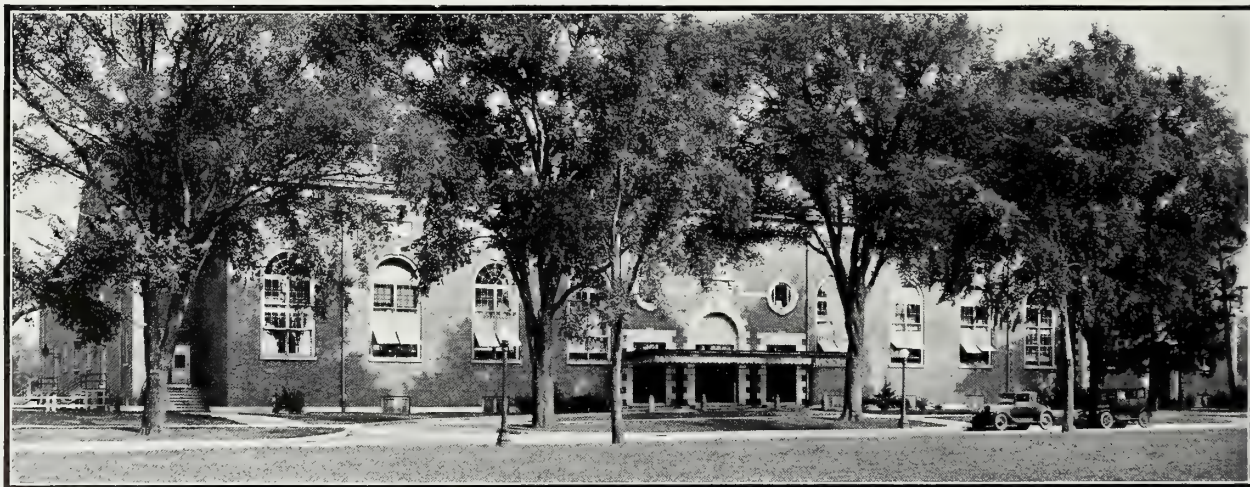

The Orange and Blue team fully demonstrated its strength by administering the only defeat of the season to Purdue, the Conference winner.

Coach Craig Ruby built his team around three seniors, Capt. "Babe" Kamp, Bob Kamp and George Fencl, and these men, with "Red" Owen, "Cas" Bennett and "Huddie" Hellmich, were the mainstays of the team throughout the season.

At the start of the season this aggregation looked unbeatable, but the early season injury of Capt. Kamp, and unpredictable errors of play kept the Illini from obtaining the coveted position at the top of the conference.

Despite the fact that the Indians were handed five defeats, they were defeated twice by only one team, in a schedule of six home and home games. They swept their series with two teams, and split the remaining through interchanges. The Illini only dropped one game on their home floor, and that was lost by a one-point margin to Ohio.

LAST spring a change was instituted in the basketball managerial staff. In former years the basketball senior manager was the only person directly in charge of the equipment of the team on trips and during practice periods.

Seeing the need for a more highly organized staff to take care of the manifold duties connected with the managing of a major team, the Athletic Association ruled that the senior manager should be assisted by two junior managers who should be selected from the sophomore managers of baseball, football, or track.

In their daily practices during the season, they were taught the plays of other Big Ten teams, which they then tried out on the varsity. In this way the frosh were a big factor in developing the Rubymen's defensive play for conference competition.

Heidrick was elected by the members of the squad as the honorary captain. Freshman basketball is an important adjunct to Coach Ruby's basketball system, as it gives him an opportunity to size up and develop future varsity material.

HOFFER of Ohio tossed a basket in the last minute of play to defeat the Illini in their opening game on the fourth of January. Bob Kamp scored six baskets and one free throw to gain high scoring honors, but Ohio took the game, 29 to 28.

FENCL, Forward

IN a surprising upset Illinois, on January 9, defeated Purdue 28 to 21 for their first conference victory of the season, and the only setback handed the winners of the conference title. The Illini held the Boilermakers to a single basket in the first half due in a large measure to Bob Kamp's general defensive work in guarding Wooden.

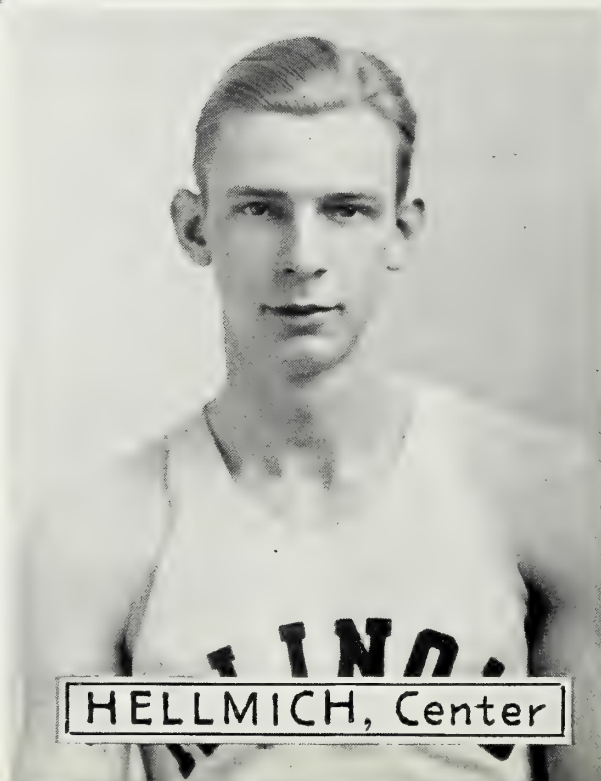

BABE KAMP, Forward

THE ILLINI journeyed to Bloomington on January 11 to take their third start of the season from Indiana, 30 to 20. Fencil, assuming the injured Captain Kamp's forward post, led the Illini in scoring with four baskets and two free throws.

MOORE, Center

MICHIGAN, on January 18, handed the Illini their second defeat of the season, 28 to 16. Captain Daniels of Michigan, in a sudden return to form, led his team to victory with six baskets and four free throws to duplicate the score of the entire Illini team.

HELLMICH, Center

ILLINOIS defeated Chicago twice during the season. January 23 the Illini were victorious 30 to 20 in a raggedly played game. The Orangemen journeyed to the Windy City on March 5, and handed the Maroons a 40 to 20 setback in a game which was notable only for the 34 personal fouls called.

O HIO State dropped the Rubymen into the second division with a 29 to 26 score to open the second semester play. Owen led the Illini to an early advance with four baskets and one free throw, but the Buckeyes again staged a belated rally, coming from behind in the last four minutes to win.

BOB KAMP, Guard

M INNESOTA and Illinois split their home and home series. The Illini, at Urbana on February 15, did not permit the Gophers to make a field goal in the first 37 minutes to win, 23 to 15. On their home floor, however, Minnesota gained revenge by taking a heartbreaking, see-saw contest, 27 to 26.

OWEN, Guard

H ELLMICH scored eight baskets to lead the Illini in their 29 to 23 revenge upon Michigan on February 20 in Champaign. Coach Ruby did not find it necessary to make a substitution, as the Wolverines secured the lead only once for a one point lead at the half.

BENNETT, Forward

T HE Rubymen traveled to Lafayette on February 29 to lose a return engagement to the Riveters, 34 to 19. Wooden made baskets and one free throw to lead his team in a flashing attack which at no time gave the Illini a chance to threaten.

BARTHOLOMEW, Forward

C APTAIN Kamp led his team to victory against Indiana in his last inter-collegiate game. After a listless first half, both teams swept into action in a flashing final period which kept the spectators in uproar until the final gun sounded with the Illini leading, 33 to 32.

ILLINOIS' outdoor track team placed second in the Big Ten Meet held at Evanston May 23, 1931. Wisconsin edged out the Illini for their first win since 1916, either the Gillmen or Michigan having won each meet since then.

The indoor track team did not fare so well at the meet held at Ann Arbor on March 5, 1932, as they finished fourth. Indiana, Michigan, and Minnesota led them in the summary of points.

Verne McDermont, king of the air and captain of the outdoor team, was a consistent winner, being bested only in the conference meet. The four-mile relay team composed of Gould, Carrison, Woolsey, and Evans showed their heels to everyone against whom they ran, including the contestants in the Kansas, Drake, and Ohio State relays, and establishing a new intercollegiate record for that event. Lee Sentman also continued to his record-breaking career by tying the world's record in the 120 yard high-hurdles at the conference meet. Other consistent point-getters were Woolsey, Purma, Bertlesman, and Hills.

Captain Purma led the indoor team, and was aided by such able scorers as Woolsey, who added another record to his string, Lennington, Cook, and Etnyre.

TRACK MANAGERS

THE management of track is handled by approximately fifteen sophomores, two juniors, and one senior. In the fall a great deal of time is spent with the cross-country men. It is necessary for the managers to lay out the course, time the men, and look after the equipment. At the end of the cross-country season, the sophomores are drafted to the basketball court. Here they trade off work with the sophomores of baseball and football.

At the beginning of the second semester, active work is begun in the armory on indoor track, and as soon as this season is over the outdoor festivities begin, and the managers are kept busy until the end of the school year.

The sophomore managers handle the physical work such as setting up hurdles, raking pits, and taking care of equipment in general, while the Juniors direct the sophomores, time the tryouts, keep the records, and direct the running off of home meets.

THE Illini cross-country team placed fourth in the Big Ten harrier meet at Iowa City, November 23, 1931, to retain their standing in the first division of the conference. Indiana took the title for the fourth consecutive year, followed by Wisconsin, Michigan, and Illinois.

The harriers opened their season Oct. 17 in a quadrangular meet at Evanston. Wisconsin was the victor, followed by Notre Dame, Illinois, and Northwestern, in the order named. Captain Woolsey led the Gillmen by taking fifth place, and was trailed by West, Smith, Lane, Lindall, Munnis, Tockstein, Fisher, Petersen, and Demorest.

For the second consecutive year, Illinois won their triangular meet with Michigan and Ohio. Captain Woolsey again led his team across the line to take second place. Line took third, West and Munnis tied for fourth, Smith was fifth, and Lindall was sixth.

H
ENRY CARRISON was a member of the famous four-mile relay team which won records at the Drake and Kansas relays. Carrison was a senior last year, and will not be available this spring.

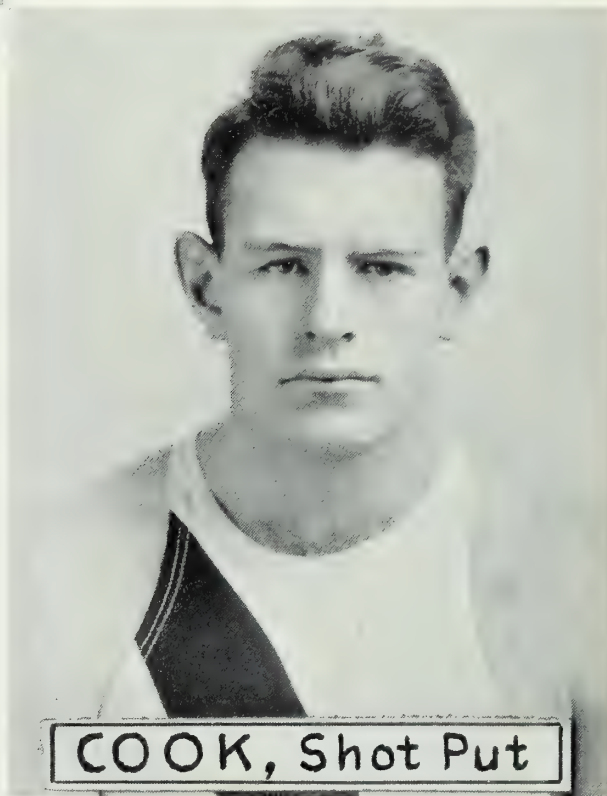

WOOLSEY, Cross Country

DEAN WOOLSEY broke the Illinois indoor record in the mile when he defeated Henry Brocksmith, conference champion, in the time of 4:17.2, clipping 5.6 seconds off the time which he himself set a year ago. Woolsey was also captain of the cross-country team.

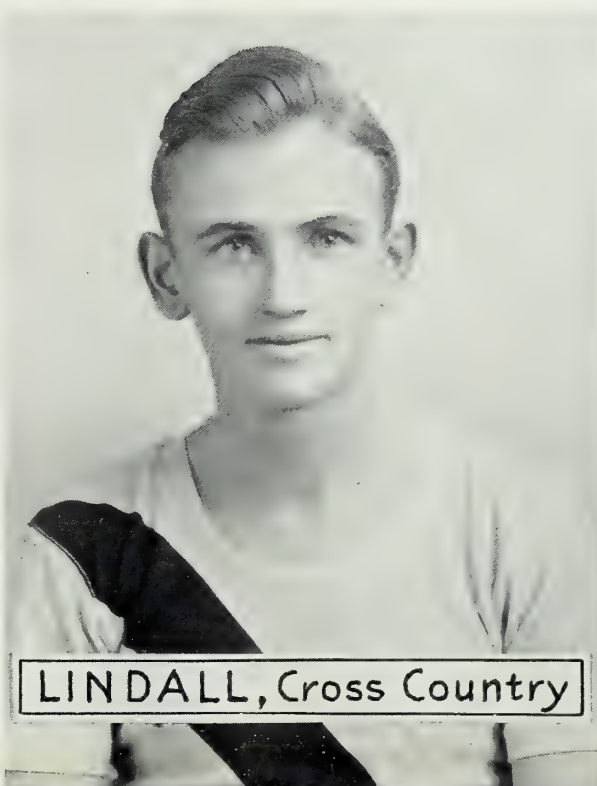

NE, Cross Country

DAVE COOK was second only to Clarence Munn of Minnesota in the shot put, and won all first places in the three meets held in the indoor seasons. His best effort was 46 feet, 8½ inches.

COOK, Shot Put

HAROLD LINE has twice won his letter by giving needed strength to Illinois' cross-country team. Line was one of the leading two-mile racers of the indoor season.

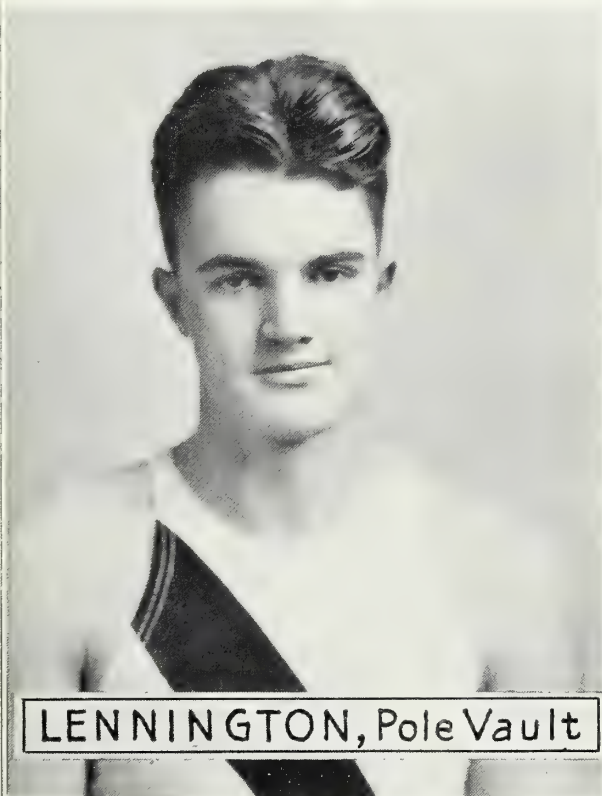

LINDALL, Cross Country

FREDDY LINDALL, who placed fourth in the half-mile at Evanston last May, was one of the better middle distance runners. Freddy was handicapped during the indoor season by an injured leg.

LEE SENTMAN broke a score of records in the hurdle races, and was recognized as one of the best in the nation. Among Sentman's outstanding performances are his equalling of the world record, 14.4 seconds, in the 120 yard high hurdles in the outdoor conference, and his establishing of a new record, 9 seconds, in the 75 yard high hurdles.

SENTMAN, Hurdles

LENNINGTON, Pole Vault

MIKE LENNINGTON, although handicapped with an infected foot during the indoor season, was the leading Illinois vaulter. His best vault was 13 feet, 4 inches against Indiana indoors. Lennington tied for fifth last May at Evanston.

MUNNIS, Cross Country

GEORGE BERTELSMAN was a consistent point winner for Illinois in the broad jump. George placed third in the conference meet with a leap of 23 feet, $\frac{3}{4}$ inches.

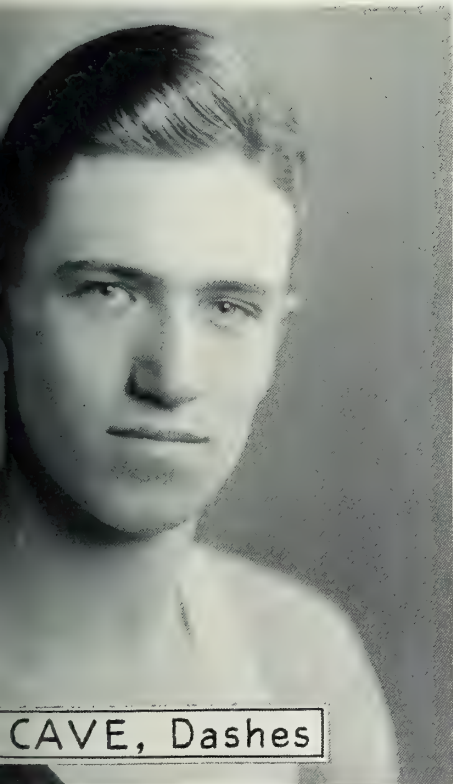

BERTELSMAN, Broad Jump

JIM MUNNIS won his letter as a member of the cross-country team. Jim was particularly adapted to the longer distance because of his physical strength and stamina.

MCDERMONT, Pole Vault

VERNE MCDERMONT broke the Illinois carnival record last year, and was the only consistent rival of Tommy Warne of Northwestern. McDermont's Illinois carnival record is 13 feet, 8¼ inches.

CAVE, Dashes

KEITH HAMPTON was a member of the mile relay team, and placed in most of the Illinois meets. He is a member of Sachem and Ma-Wan-Da.

HAMPTON, Dashes

JIM CAVE, captain of the track team, was the leading sprint man of the Illini. His best races were at Indiana in a triangular meet, when he sped 100 yards in :09.6, only a fifth of a second more than the world's record, and traveled the 220 in :21.3, a new Indiana record.

DUNCAN, Relays

EARL DUNCAN, a winner of an "I", was one of Illinois' leading broad-jumpers and placed frequently in the meets. In addition, he was a member of the relay team.

LED by Captain Eddie Tryban, and George Mills, pitching ace for the Illinois team, the Illinois nine walked off with another Big Ten Conference Championship under its belt. Winning eight games and losing but two, the Illini nosed out the hard-hitting Chicago aggregation which won the same number of games as the Indians, but was defeated three times.

Illinois accounted for two of the three defeats given to Chicago last season. Wisconsin, Conference Champions from the previous season, gave the Fighting Illini a lacing, 8 to 3. Ohio administered the Illini's other defeat, 10 to 5. Illinois retaliated with victories over both teams.

Building his team around such sterling hitters as Fuzak, Tryban, Mills, and Gbur, Coach Lundgren worked his boys into shape at an early date. The Lundymen opened the Big Ten race by giving the Wildcats a 15 to 4 drubbing. This winning stride was continued until the later part of the season, when the Illinois team dropped its two conference defeats.

BASEBALL MANAGERS

BASEBALL managers are kept busy throughout the school year. Soon after school starts in the fall, baseball is resumed at Illinois field, and the team usually get in two months practice before cold weather drives them inside. The sophomore managers report at the first call for baseball practice, and at the end of two weeks the staff is usually complete with 12 to 15 sophomore men.

One of the duties of the baseball managers is to usher at the football games held in Memorial Stadium; the Junior baseball managers have charge of all the ushering in the stadium. For a short while during the winter months the baseball managers are left to enjoy their leisure, but this is a short-lived holiday for early in March the baseball team is sent outside, and from then until the end of the school year the baseball managers are kept busy every afternoon.

EARLY in March Coach Carl Lundgren gathered his baseball cohorts and journeyed to the southland, where they opened the season by trouncing Mississippi A. and M., 7 to 2. The next day they repeated by a 6 to 0 score over the University of Mississippi. The Indians then moved over to the University of Alabama, where they took it on the chin in two straight games. Before returning home, they stopped long enough to defeat the Mississippi A. and M. team twice.

Near the later part of the season, the Illini entertained the Hosei ball players of Japan. Previous to these depressing years, it has been the custom for Illinois baseball teams to travel to Japan one year and entertain a Japanese team in Champaign the following season. Two games were played last spring with the Hosei team, and the Illini had to put forth their best ball of the spring to barely nose out the Japanese crew by a one run margin in both games.

Illinois starts the season by conquering Northwestern, 15-4

HOSEI TEAM

CO-CAPTAIN George Mills has been the mainstay of the Illinois pitching staff for the past two seasons. Coupled with his ability on the mound, he is one of the surest hitters on the squad and was considered one of the most valuable players to his team in the Big Ten. As a consequence, he was selected as pitcher on the first All-Conference team.

MILLS,
Pitcher and First Base

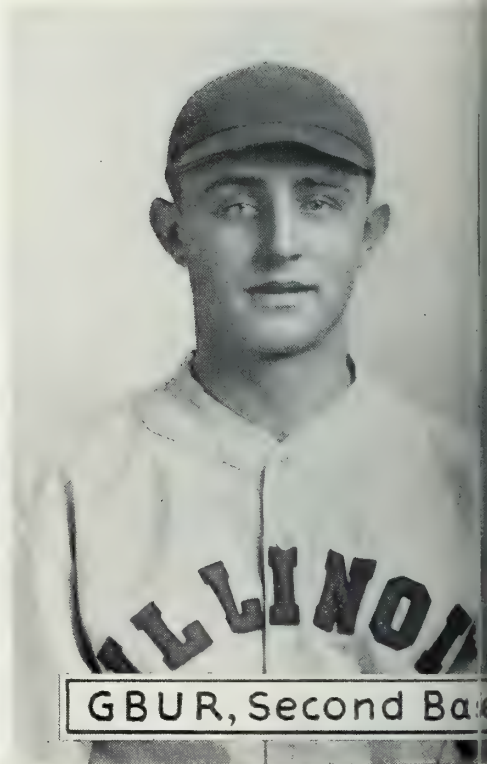

AL HAZZARD, a lanky right-handed twirler, turned in a creditable showing last season, despite the fact that he was ailing with a bad knee and sore right arm. His best performance was in the Chicago game when he silenced the big guns of the Maroon aggregation after they had battled two other Illini pitchers out of the box.

WAHL, Third Base

HAZZARD, Pitcher

GBUR, Second Base

EDDIE WAHL covered the territory adjacent to third base and did his duty in a fashion that belied all derogatory comment. He played almost every position on the diamond during the early part of the season, but when Lundy found that he could jump higher, reach farther, and throw faster from third than from any other sack, he made that Eddie's regular berth.

EDDIE GBUR, after spending his first year as a substitute infielder for Capt. Trumban, broke into the big time last season as second baseman for the Lundymen, and performed in handsome style throughout the year. Eddie had a bit of trouble with his batting eye at the opening of the season, but after he started to click he stood well up the column.

TUBBY STEUERNAGLE, who performed in great style in the outfield last season, was one of those boys who can always be counted on for a hit or two in the proper place during every game. He swatted the ball around the park with such consistency that he placed among the first ten hitters in the Conference.

STEUERNAGLE, Outfield

WALLY BRINN, a senior last year, functioned as part-time catcher, sharing this duty with Paul Chervinko, chunky sophomore flash. When not crouched behind the plate Wally was shoved in to hit in the pinches, where he usually came through.

FENCL, Outfield

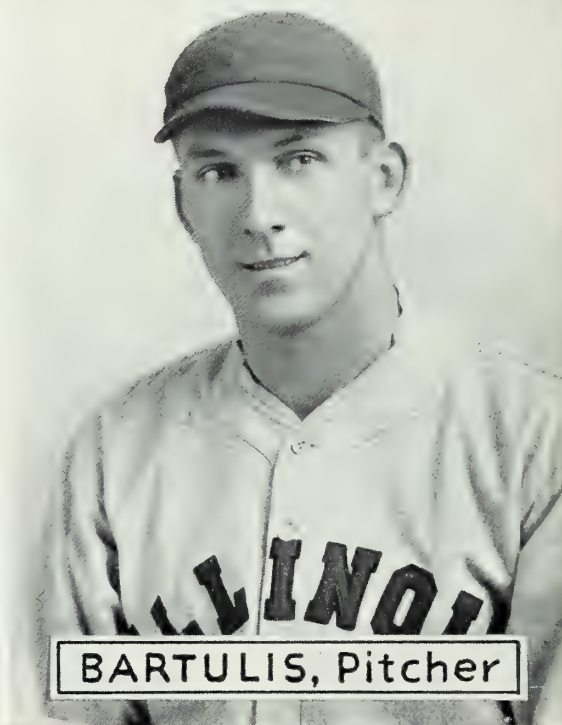

GEORGE FENCL who doubled as an outfielder and infielder during the bulk of last year's schedule, was one of the fastest base-runners that Lundy has had for some time. One of his best exhibitions of this art came when he stole home in the Northwestern encounter.

TRYBAN, Short Stop

BRINN, Catcher

BARTULIS, Pitcher

CAPTAIN Eddie Tryban, who was considered the most outstanding short stop in the Conference had an exceedingly successful season, last year, allowing only three fast ones to slip through his fingers during the season. Besides being the ace of the Big Ten short stops, he was a deadly hitter.

CHERVINKO, Catcher

JOE BARTULIS, another one of Lundy's string of pitching aces, delivered consistent ball all season. His outstanding performance was in the Purdue game when he fanned eight Boilermakers to win the game, 9 to 2. Joe was lost to the squad this year, since he is training with the pitching staff of the Chicago White Sox.

PAUL CHERVINKO, serving his first year on the Varsity, performed as regular backstop throughout the season. He was considered one of the best catchers in college baseball, as was evidenced by the fact that he was mentioned on one of the All-American selections last year.

Above—Tryban leads off with a single in the fourth inning to start the rally which carried the Illini on a wave of victory to swamp Purdue, 9 to 2. Tryban led the hitting with three singles. He crossed the plate three times and drove in three teammates, accounting for six of the nine runs scored against the Boilermakers.

Above—Bartulis scampers home with the final run of the game in the Purdue fracas, won by the Illini by the punishing score of 9 to 2. Joe turned in one of his finest pitching performances of the season when he held the Riveters to six scattered hits. He silenced eight of the big guns of Purdue by the strikeout route.

Above—Fuzak circling the bases on a line drive that carried him around to third in the Michigan encounter. The Illini won undisputed lead of the Conference when they dropped the unbeaten Wolverine aggregation, 10 to 6, in this game. Fuzak and Tryban led the hitting with three blows apiece, while George Mills capably handled the relief assignment to receive credit as the winning pitcher.

Above—Tryban bangs out a single in the Chicago game, scoring Witte and giving the Illini an 8-6 win over the Maroons. The Varsity converted 13 hits into their eight runs, while Chicago crossed the plate six times and got 10 hits. Hazzard was the winning pitcher, having taken over the mound duties when Mills and Wiese could not manage the Maroon batsmen.

Left—Mills is shown stepping around first base on his circuit clout in the Bradley game, which Illinois won by the handy score of 10 to 5. The Illini got double value out of the eleven hits each that both teams scored, bunching them in the crucial moments while Bradley scattered its shots to bring them to no account. Bartulis was the winning pitcher.

ALL

Above—Mills slashes ineffectively as the third strike comes whizzing over the plate in the Chicago game. Illinois nosed out the powerful Maroon aggregation, 8 to 6, after nine innings of furious ball. A Chicago rally in the ninth inning was safely averted after three runs had been scored.

Above—Williams, brawny Purdue slugger, nicks the hurling of Bartulis for a single in the ninth inning in a vain attempt to overcome Illinois' 9-1 lead. Williams added the final Purdue tally which brought the score to 9 to 2. Weaver of Purdue led his teammates in hitting with three blows out of their total six. Williams contributed two and Hessinger slapped out one.

Right—Fuzak romps home after a trip around the bases on a circuit clout off Kruft, Northwestern hurler. Fuzak cracked out five hits in five times at bat for a total of 13 bases. He got a single, a double, a pair of triples, and a home run. He carried a double assignment in this game when he played first base and later left field.

Above—Fuzak takes a generous lead off first base in the Northwestern game. The Illini trimmed the claws of the Wildcats, 15 to 4, rolling up the highest and most lop-sided score of the season on a Conference foe. Mills allowed nine hits, but kept them scattered to prevent Northwestern from making any sort of a rally. The Illini battered three Wildcat pitchers for 13 blows.

Above—Fujii, star fielder of the Japanese baseball team from Hosei University of Tokyo, Japan, slides safely into first base. The Illini came from behind in the seventh inning of this scuffle to change what first seemed to be a 2-0 shutout to a 3-2 victory. Gbur started the rally with a single to left with Wahl and Chervinko hitting safely after him, and Rosenfeldt driving in the final and winning tally. Illinois won the second encounter of the series, 4-3.

Chicago then came to the New Gym to take a firm hold on the small end of a 25 to 3 score.

WINNING two out of three dual meets and placing fifth in the Big Ten Conference meet, Illinois' Varsity Swimming team turned in a creditable showing for the 1931-32 season. In their first dual meet, the Orange and Blue warriors gave Indiana a severe drubbing. Indiana only was able to take one second place, a feat accomplished by Bidinger, who placed second to Al Schick in diving. The Illini took first in all events, and piled up a score of 60 points to the Crimson's 15. The Northwestern tankmen traveled to Champaign to administer the first defeat of the season to Coach Manley's natators. In this meet, Joe Brock set a tank record in the 440-yard free style. Bartholomew, Moench, and Feinberg watched the meet from the sidelines because of illness. Illinois conquered Chicago the following week-end. This was an easy meet for the Illini, and they copped all but one first place.

On March 12, Michigan walked off with the Conference title at Columbus, Ohio. The competition in this meet was keen, as was evidenced by the breaking of three records. Brock, free style artist, scored all five of Illinois' points, placing in the 220-yard free style, and coming in third in the 100.

VARSIITY FENCING

FOR the fourth successive year, Coach Herb Craig guided his Orange and Blue fencers to a Western Conference championship, and, to bring added glory to his record, all of the members of the three-man team returned with individual championships in their three respective weapon classes during the 1932 season.

Ralph Epstein was Craig's outstanding protégé of the season, chalking up a remarkable record in the three dual clashes, one quadrangular contest, and the conference meet that were included on the schedule. In the final Big Ten bouts, he went undefeated to easily seize the foils title. Butch Perrella was the outstanding sabre man, while Paul Reddish was Craig's best épée contender. The latter will lead the team as captain in 1933. The fourth member of the squad to receive a letter was Jimmy Gorin, Epstein's partner at foils. Gorin won five and lost one tussle in the quadrangular meet to insure himself of an award.

In the opening contest of the season, the Craigmens were forced to accept a 6 to 6 tie with the Ohio State sword wielders. On the following Saturday, the Illini duelsmen started on their victory march in a sensational series of matches that brought them a 9 to 3 margin of victory. Craig's men continued their string of wins against Northwestern, Chicago, and Michigan.

VARSIITY SOCCER

COACH Hartley Price directed his team through an excellent season with four victories, one tie, and no defeats. In doing this, the booters annexed the Middle West title for the third consecutive time.

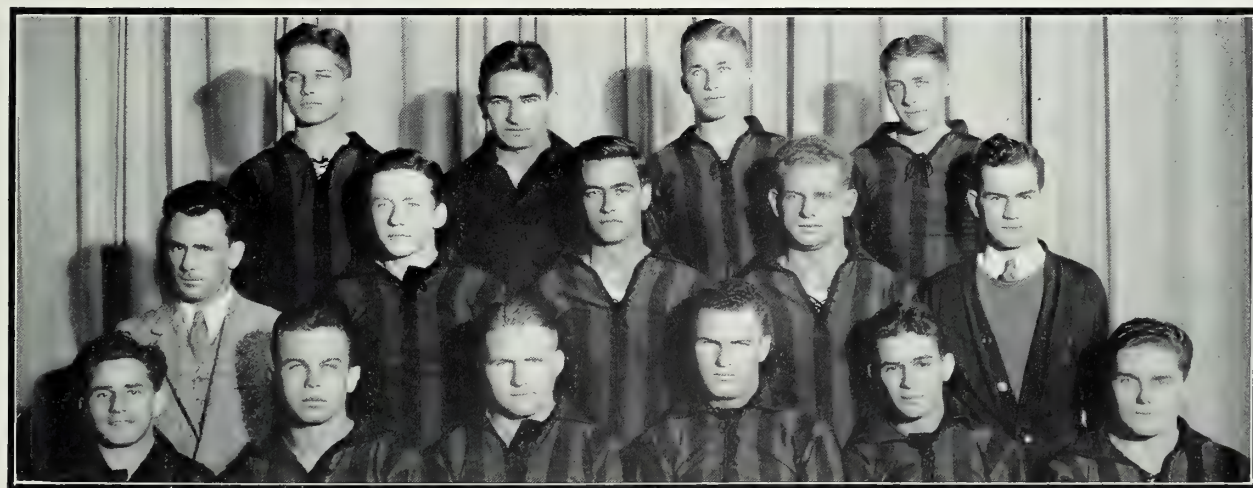

A fighting team from the German Soccer Club of Decatur aided the Illini in knocking the cover off the 1931 playing season October 3, by battling them to a 1 to 1 tie.

The Orange and Blue men defeated their next opponent, Ohio State, on October 13, to the tune of 3 to 0. This made ten victories for the Illini out of eleven meetings of the two teams.

The Pricemen gained revenge for their early season tie with the Decatur German Club team by defeating them, October 31, on the New Gym field. Reston and Ader were the leading lights in this battle. These men again starred, this time with two goals apiece, in defeating the Joliet Steel Workers, 4 to 1, in a night game a week later at Joliet.

The rampant Illini closed their season November 14, by beating Ohio State, 2 to 1, in a tight game which was closely contested throughout. This victory cinched the title for Coach Price's booters.

VARSIY GYMNASTICS

ILLINOIS started out the season with flying colors by defeating Ohio 1083.20 to 873. Glasser, a mediocre performer until this season, was the star of this meet; he rang up three firsts and one second place in the four events in which he was entered. The Orange and Blue team took first, second, and third in the high bar, parallel bar, and tumbling events. The next week-end, St. Louis Y. M. C. A. College was the victim of the Illini. Glasser was again high point man, and Wells of St. Louis turned in the best performance of the day. His performance on the still rings met with loud applause from the crowd.

On March 6, the Pricemen met with stiffer opposition, but came out on top in a three-cornered meet with Michigan and Chicago. Until the final event, Chicago led by 12 points, but Cadle, Kring, and Gray, all Illinois men, completely outpointed Chicago in tumbling and gave Illinois a two-point margin. To wind up the 1932 Gym season, the Illinois gymnasts took third in the Big Ten Meet. Captain Olsen of Chicago defeated Rehor of Illinois and Wrighte of Chicago for the all-around championship. In this meet Cadle, Zitzler, and Rehor placed first in their events.

Varsity Water Polo

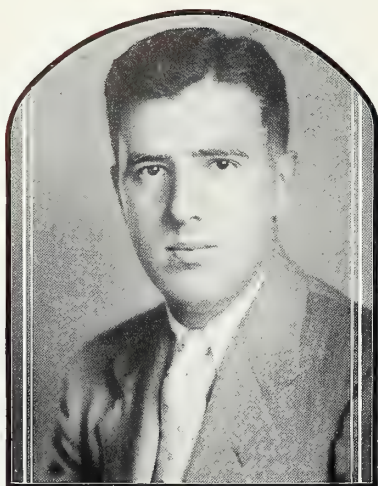

THE Illinois 1931-32 Varsity water polo seven, led by Captain Bob Pashby, annexed the Western Conference Championship for the fourth time in the last five years. The water poloists opened the season by trouncing Indiana, 11 to 0. In this game, Feinberg starred with six tallies, and Brock, besides playing a good passing game, contributed two points to the scoring column.

On February 20, the Illini traveled to Northwestern to win a hard fought battle from the Wildcats to the tune of 4 to 3. The Orange and Blue scored twice in the first half, and held Northwestern to one point; in the second half the teams played on a par. Pashby's sterling game at guard stood out prominently in this game. Next, the Illini took on the Chicago aqua ball players, who always turn out a strong team. Winning this game meant the Conference championship, and this the Illinois boys accomplished to the tune of 3 to 2. Joe Brock was the star of this fracas, counting twice and also playing a brilliant defensive game. It was a nip and tuck battle throughout, and Brock's brilliant goal, which he scored on a throw three-quarters the length of the pool, gave victory to Illinois. Bob Pashby, Illinois guard, contributed the other point to the Orange and Blue total.

VARSIITY TENNIS

THE 1931 edition of Coach Gelwick's Illini tennis team, led by Captain Johnny McElroy, labored through a tough conference schedule to wind up the year with a record of three conference games won and two lost.

Besides Captain McElroy, Don Traynor, Doug Turner, and Jay Topper performed exceptionally well for Illinois, while Paul Miller, Bob Brown, and Jim O'Shea were not far behind. The Illini did not enjoy much success in the conference meet held May 28 in Columbus. Traynor was the only man to advance beyond the first round, and he bowed to Yutzy of Minnesota in the quarter-finals.

An interesting feature of the season was a Southern trip taken early in March. Illinois played two games, losing the first to Rice Institute, 5 to 1, and winning the second from Tulane, 4 to 2. A similar jaunt was taken this spring.

VARSIITY GOLF

CAPT. FRED LYON led his team of Illini golfers to their second consecutive conference team championship over the new Michigan course at the end of the playing season. This concluded a season which had run the Illinois total up to twelve encounters without a setback.

Coach Utley's linksmen inaugurated the season on May 2 by defeating Wisconsin, 10 to 8. Reston and Alpert starred for the Illini.

Stopping in at Northwestern on the road back home the next day, the Indians won again, this time by a score of 14 to 4. Capt. Lyon and Crowe tied for low score for the day. Ohio State came to Urbana the following week-end only to find rain, mud, and high wind. Capt. Lyon saved this meet for the Illini with a putt on the eighteenth green which gave him a tie with Capt. Wilson of the Buckeyes, and the meet was won, 10-8.

Purdue, the next victim of the invincible Illini, did not win a match while Utley's men were defeating them, 15 to 3. Chicago came to Illinois next, and again our team acted the impolite host in beating the Maroons, 12½ to 5½.

Michigan managed to tie the Illini, 9 to 9, to close the dual meet season, but the Orange and Blue men came back and defeated them by five points while they were winning the conference championship by leading the field home.

WORKING with the idea that every man in the university should participate in athletics, Director Edwin J. Manley and Senior Manager Frederick A. Schnell directed the intramural activities for the past year. To ensure the fulfillment of this modern idea of participation for all, individual cups were offered for winners in the independent divisions, and the Participation Trophy was put up as an incentive for concerted action from the Greeks.

The Sophomore and Junior managers have as their duties the keeping of an accurate check on the points which each fraternity makes in competition. The fraternity having the largest total score at the end of the season is awarded the Intramural Participation Trophy, which it keeps in its possession for the succeeding school year. When any fraternity has won the trophy three years in succession, they are given permanent possession of the cup, and a new one is supplied.

WOMAN'S LEAGUE

WOMAN'S LEAGUE was organized to further the spirit of unity among all University women, membership in which is open to every girl registered in the University. The Woman's Group System, an integral part of Woman's League, organizes all the Independent women into social units. At the Woman's League teas, Group Mixers, and All-University Parties, the ties of old friendships are strengthened, and new friendships are made which grow stronger throughout college days. Orange and Blue Feathers and Gold Feathers afford opportunities for the underclassmen to develop executive ability and outstanding qualities. Homecoming, Dad's Day, and Mother's Day are sponsored by the League in co-operation with the Illinois Union, and the Big Sister movement, carried on by the Y. W. C. A. and Woman's League, aids the incoming Freshmen in the fall, the Freshmen Education Committee of the League assisting them in their work of self-orientation during the year. The Y. W. C. A. and the League also join in a Vocational Guidance movement, having a speaker each year who advises any of the women who wish to confer with her. The proceeds from the annual production given under the auspices of the Woman's League go to support three co-operative houses for girls working their way through school.

ORANGE and Blue Feathers, for Freshmen women, has a threefold purpose: to attain scholarship, to encourage activities, and to promote new friendships. Organized to further these three ideals throughout college days, Orange and Blue Feathers requires a "C" average, attendance at meetings, and a knowledge of Illini traditions for initiation. By means of a loan fund, this group helps to carry its share of the welfare work of Woman's League.

We, the members of the Young Women's Christian Association at the University of Illinois, unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God.

We determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people.

In this task we seek to understand Jesus and follow Him.

THIS purpose is the foundation of our common interests, upon which we base our work to form finer friendships and to achieve a greater understanding and appreciation of our own problems and those of our world neighbors. Our purpose is realized through meetings every Thursday, followed by a social hour; the Y. W.-Y. M. parties; and such committees as the World Fellowship, Inter-racial, Industrial, Social Service, and Religious Education. Projects such as the Doll Show, the Annual Stunt Show, Vocational Guidance Week, and Faculty Forums are held each year to supplement the work of the committees.

WITH the completion of the new Woman's Gymnasium and the consequent increased recreational facilities, the Woman's Athletic Association extended its membership to include a greater number of girls by changing admission requirements. Now, participation in one sport season is the only prerequisite for membership in the organization.

The field west of the gym is to be transformed into additional hockey and soccer fields and a tennis unit. These, plus the new games room, will supply ample equipment for the more inclusive organization of this year.

The main project of W. A. A. has been the establishment of a Loan Fund to aid girls who are majoring in Physical Education and find themselves financially unable to continue their work. In addition to the sports sponsored by the Advisory Board, W. A. A. sponsors a Play Day in the spring, Sans Souci in the fall, and sports banquets at the close of each sport season.

TERRAPIN CLUB

TERRAPIN is the honorary swimming organization for women. Its purpose is to promote interest in swimming among university women, and to encourage their participation in this sport.

This year Terrapin has combined its units and become one organization comprised of members of two degrees of ability, major and minor. To become a major or minor Terrapin, a girl must pass a test required for each division respectively. For those wishing to pass the major test, a greater degree of proficiency in the various swimming strokes and skill in diving are required.

The emblem worn by a Terrapin corresponds to her standing in the organization, the major wearing a larger emblem than the minor.

As a single unit, Terrapin presents a pageant or exhibition each year during the week-end of Mother's Day as a part of that week's program. Last year on Saturday evening, May 7, the exhibition was presented before a capacity crowd in the swimming pool in the Men's New Gymnasium. The background was a Florida scene, with palms, sand, and beach pajamas. Form swimming to music, relays, fancy diving from both the low and the high board, and formation swimming were featured in the demonstration.

MAJOR W. A. A. AWARDS

W. A. A. gives, as its highest recognition of merit in the field of athletic activity, the Gold Seal. It represents versatility of ability in athletics, for in order to earn the 2000 points necessary for the award, a girl must participate in at least one sport during each of the four sport seasons. The association sponsors hockey, soccer, and tennis during the season that terminates with Thanksgiving vacation, and swimming, basketball, volleyball, and apparatus during the season which occupies the remainder of the first semester.

The second semester opens with a sport season which includes swimming, bowling, ping-pong, and deck tennis, closing with Easter vacation. Baseball, track, and archery engage the center of activity during the last quarter.

The Major "I" is awarded when a girl has earned 1200 points. Girls making a first team in a major sport earn 100 points, those making a second team, 40 points. Minor sport positions garner 60 and 25 points for first and second teams, respectively. Points may also be earned by heads of the committee in charge of Sans Souci, Health Week, Play Day, and May Fete. Also, each sport manager is awarded 100 points.

When a girl has won a total of 600 points, she receives the first award, a minor "IA."

RUSHEES stand in line to receive their bids to sororities, formal pledging, and the real business of the year starts. Freshmen are introduced to Women's Athletics with Sans Souci, start their activities education in Orange and Blue Feathers, and their social life at parties given by this organization. Homecoming appears on the horizon, and pledges and actives stand on street corners. "Won't you buy a badge?" Torch, the secret ambition of every sophomore woman's heart, entertains Senior members at Hallowe'en. A Y. M. Y. W. party offers opportunity to freshmen and upperclassmen to dance.

FALL sports swing into life with hockey and soccer, but only a few can attain a coveted place on Varsity teams. Woman's Group System gives parties for non-sorority women. Miss Jackson, vocational guidance director, is entertained at dinner, and Orange and Blue and Gold Feathers combine to give a real, old-fashioned Christmas party. Despite pretended independence, men claim the help of the co-eds to give a successful Horse Show. The Women's Glee Club sings; Life-Saving Club presents a satisfactorily melodramatic pageant—and the Woman's Rifle Team proves that it can shoot straight.

Visitors Are Amused by Pyramid Building

THE Physical Education Department declares the New Gym open, and we are entertained by a tour of the building and various athletic events. And the P. E. Majors certainly were fortunate when the University donated them such a colorful lounge. We are pleasantly diverted at tea by songs presented by principals from the cast of "Castles in the Air." W. A. A. announces practices for bowling, and we watch with interest while the Juniors win the basketball tournament. Every Wednesday during the year we make acquaintances, eat cookies, and nod to friends at Woman's League Tea.

AND this year (something new under the campus sun) the P. E. Majors give a circus, with clowns, acrobats, hand-made animals, pop, peanuts, and everything. Volleyball tournaments are played, and the proud Varsity team pauses on the steps of the Woman's Building to have its picture snapped. Matrix announces its list of honored guests, and from the way Marge Blatt and Biffy Enger are smiling, we presume they are pleased with Sherwood Anderson, novelist and newspaper editor. Election time rolls around, and Mary Robbins acts as judge at the Y. W. Polls.

DON'T you think the polls for Woman's League election look very business-like? And voting this year is certainly much faster than it ever has been before. Last year's Shi-Ai Swim is won by A. O. Pi, and we can't blame them for looking pleased with their victory. Orchesis presents a dance pageant, and we enjoy the Y. W. C. A. Stunt Show. Acts are clever, well-costumed, and the judges must have been hard put to choose a winner. Kappa Alpha Theta is the lucky sorority, but Mother Goose, as interpreted by Sigma Kappa, is a charming act.

Swimming is a grand sport, and when it is accompanied by palms, costumes, and an audience, a clever Terrapin pageant is evolved. So ends the year; final exams—and we return from whence we came.

THE DOLL SHOW

THIS year, just before Christmas, the Y. W. C. A. sponsored its annual Doll Show. The receipts accruing from admission tickets and the dolls provided by the sororities and groups for the various exhibits were given to the Association House in Chicago, and to the Cunningham Home. Under the direction of Mary V. Wright and her committee, the show presented a panorama of the proposed World's Fair. The Tri-Deltas took first place for sororities with their quilting scene, and Alcestis won the award for the groups. Individual dolls were arranged on a futuristic stage. The poster contest was won by Sara Hewitt.

FOR the first time in a number of years, a Woman's League production included men in the cast. George Churchill as Kemlar, the Jester, was clever and efficient. Dancing and music were pleasing, and we congratulate the Theater Guild on the impressive castle scene, the background for the second act. Specialty dancing by campus celebrities was excellent, and with clear conscience we can say we enjoyed the show.

THE ILLIO, and all other student publications at the University of Illinois, are subsidiaries of the Illini Publishing Company. The latter, chartered by the State of Illinois as a corporation not for profit, has been in existence since May 11, 1911. It is controlled by a Board of Directors consisting of four faculty members selected by the Senate Committee on Student Affairs, and four students elected by the student body.

Like many other administrative and legislative enactments, the creation of a supervisory agency for publication on the University of Illinois campus was partially the result of unwise practices by those who had been entrusted with the responsibilities of editing and managing them in former years.

The condition existing since 1911, with editors and managers and their chief assistants appointed by the Board on the merit system, have resulted in obtaining a much higher level of professional competency on both the editorial and business staffs of campus publications. There has been also a continuity of policy and purpose and a safeguarding of property, as well as a full settlement of obligations each year with local creditors. Through the employment of a full-time manager, the publishing company has been able during the last twelve years to afford a means of advising the newer members of the staff each year.

THE ILLINI PUBLISHING COMPANY

VICTOR L. KRANNERT, Company Manager

THE Illini Publishing Company, which issues all student publications at the University of Illinois, was organized in 1911. Its growth has been rapid; its financial success marked; its influence widespread.

Its rapid growth we see in a plant which not only turns out a twelve-page, eight-column metropolitan newspaper carrying full Associated Press leased wire service, but which prints all student publications except THE ILLIO. From a print shop tucked away in the basement of one of the University buildings, it has become today one of the best equipped college publishing companies in the United States. Its presses are located in the Illinois Union Building.

Its success in business, made possible by a firm foundation and well-directed policies, is clearly indicated by its physical expansion.

Its influence is felt wherever an alumnus is found who has served The Illini Publishing Company on one of its student publications.

THE Illinois Union was founded in 1909 to foster all legitimate forms of student activity and to promote Illinois spirit by all possible means. Beginning with 2,000 members and practically no assets, it has enjoyed a phenomenal growth. With the growth of the student body into its present large and heterogeneous mass, an ever-growing need was felt for some central agency to co-ordinate activities of an extra-curricular nature and at the same time promote college spirit and good fellowship. The work of the Illinois Union is to bring closer to realization this unification of activities, college spirit, and good fellowship.

HOMECOMING was begun twenty-two years ago as a means of more closely uniting the University student body with the Illinois Alumni. It is usually held over the week-end of the football game which is expected to be the season's best in order to attract the Alumni on their return to the campus. The Homecoming Committees arrange for Alumni meetings and good entertainment, as well as provide the best service possible for the visitors. Fraternity and sorority house decoration awards, the Stunt Show, the Hobo Parade, badge and stamp sales, and Alumni registration are some of the activities sponsored by the Homecoming Committees.

DAD'S DAY was conceived and made a reality by Dean Emeritus Thomas A. Clark in 1919 for the purpose of setting aside one day in each year on which the fathers of students might visit the University in a body and see the University in action. The day is combined with a home football game, a concert by the Men's Glee Club, and other forms of entertainment. Letters are sent out advising them of the event by both the University and the Illinois Union. As a result of the founding of Dad's Day, the Dads' Association was formed, an organization which co-operates with the University and the Union in every enterprise.

COMPOSED of eighteen members of the student body selected automatically by virtue of their positions in campus activities, the Student Council is empowered to rule on all student affairs throughout the year. It is directly responsible for the selection of the Dance Supervision Committee, the Freshman Frolic Committee, and the first semester president of the Freshman Class. In addition to legislating upon all affairs brought before it by direct petition or by observation of the respective members, five members sit with the University Senate Committee on Student Affairs for the purpose of bringing the student's point of view to the notice of that body.

THE Military Council was founded three years ago through the suggestion and help of Colonel Charles W. Weeks. It is an advisory council composed of the different military organizations on the campus. A faculty advisor is chosen from the officers on active duty at the University, and the Student Colonel acts as a non-voting member. The chief purposes of the Council are to bring about a closer organization among the groups represented by its members, and to sponsor special functions of the R. O. T. C. Unit, such as the Military Ball, the Horse Show, and similar activities.

ORGANIZED originally in 1902 as a lecture course, the Star Course grew, in response to student demand, to include the supervision and management of all concerts and entertainments given at the University by professional artists, lecturers, orchestras, and other professional organizations. It is a non-profit organization, and now, under its new name, conducts the Star Course as a series of concerts by the finest obtainable talent. The University Concert and Entertainment Board consists of representative members from faculty and students, and selects the talent to appear for the year. The business staff is composed entirely of students, with a Senior Manager selected by the Board, and takes care of all negotiations and production work for the presentation of concerts.

THE Agriculture Council is under the direction of the president of the Agricultural Club, and is composed of the semester presidents of the specialized agriculture clubs: Hoof and Horn, Dairy, Field and Furrow, Farm Mechanics, Horticulture, and Agricultural Education. The Council has as its purpose the promotion of better agriculture and agricultural methods, and accomplishes this end through meetings, conferences and lectures, judging contests, and other means to arouse the interest of the students of the College of Agriculture. It annually sponsors the Peanut Banquet, the Student Farmer Fair, the All-Agricultural Banquet, and other more minor activities. Through its work, it brings the agricultural students into closer contact with each other and with the field of agriculture.

THE Independent Council, reorganized this year in every department, has become the governing body of the All-University Independent Association. It consists of a cabinet of fifteen senators, representative of, and responsible to, all independent male students. The Council aids freshmen in registering and in entering campus activities, conducts bridge, billiard, and athletic tournaments, assists the intramural department in organizing independent teams, and sponsors dances, smokers, and dinners. It serves in every way possible to elevate the status of the independent man, and to bring the 4,000 independent men into contact with the activities of the University. In co-operation with the Woman's Group System, this year the Council was able to establish an independent newspaper which reaches all independent students.

THE Illini Theatre Guild was organized in 1924 for the purpose of supervising all dramatic productions presented by organizations existing solely for that purpose. It aims to co-ordinate such dramatic activity on the campus, and to promote its general welfare.

The membership of the Illini Theatre Guild is divided into two classes: regular and associate members. The former class is made up of those organizations purely dramatic in nature and with no other major function: Mask and Bauble, Pierrot, and The Players' Club. The associate members are Woman's League and the Y. W. C. A., organizations which, though they have other more vital interests, produce some form of stage entertainment in conjunction with their other activities.

The Theatre Guild is governed by a board of directors made up of representatives from the five member organizations, and two faculty members chosen each year by the Committee on Student Affairs. The board of directors is headed by a chairman elected by and from the board. The group meets every week to consider problems of finance, personnel, and general policy with regard to the dramatic productions presented under its jurisdiction.

SINCE its formation in 1924, the Guild has gradually attempted more and more difficult problems in theatrical art. The opening of the Lincoln Hall Theatre in the spring of 1930 provided a further incentive and opportunity to develop some of the finer points in dramatic production, due both to the centralization of activity, which had hitherto been quite scattered, and to the advantage of the more modern equipment which the theatre offers.

At present, the Guild has a repertoire of six major productions per year, three of which are given by Mask and Bauble, one by Pierrot, and two by the Players' Club. In addition, each of the associate members make one presentation each year. The Guild hopes to extend its work in the near future, so as to present an adequate program of diversified dramatic entertainment in keeping with the size and prestige of the University.

"THE BLACK FLAMINGO"

THE house lights of the Little Theatre dimmed May 8 and 9 and May 15 and 16 for Mask and Bauble's "Black Flamingo". Accompanied by all the fanfare of offstage melodramatic effects, the show was well staged with excellent scenic effects. James Luneberg, as the unscrupulous Count Cagliostro, was traced through his devious plottings and thievery to a well-staged finale in which the mysterious disappearance of Queen Marie Antoinette's diamond necklace was explained to the satisfaction of everyone. Wesley Swanson coached the well-trained cast with his usual skill.

"REMOTE CONTROL"

MASK and Bauble opened its fall season on October 23 and 24 and November 6 and 7 with "Remote Control," a mystery radio thriller. George Coldewey as Walter Brokenchild, the "premier radio announcer of the air," brought you to WPH, Chicago, and kept you there through spiritualistic seances, robberies, shootings, murder, and the capture of the Ghost gang, the most sensational bank bandits ever known in Chicago. Susan Jane Dikeman supported Coldewey in the co-lead in able fashion.

"SEE NAPLES AND DIE"

"SEE Naples and Die," produced in Lincoln Hall Theatre on March 11 and 12 and March 18 and 19 was the first Mask and Bauble offering of the second semester. James Luneberg, as Charles Carroll, and Dorsey Connors, playing Nanette Dodge Kasoff, led the cast in a plot woven around the marriage of Nanette to a Russian prince after the latter has confronted her sister with a blackmail threat. The swift action of the piece left time for sufficient character sketching to present the typical American tourist doing Europe, and the aestheticism and defeatist complex of the decadent Russian aristocracy.

THE Homecoming Stunt Show came to town again under the direction of Dorothy Gard and W. B. Arnold, and stayed long enough for Finnegan and Gard to take the doubles cup for the fourth year in a row. Alpha Omicron Pi won the group competition with the well trained chorus of its A. O. Piracy.

The Union Minstrel, with W. B. Arnold as chairman, was the usual Old Plantation, buck and wing, black and tan fantasy. Dick Cisne's weaving rhythms and Carl Chase's shimmy, along with June Smith's swaying cake walk, gave color to this annual production of the Union.

"WOTTA RACKET"

"WOTTA Racket" was Pierrot's annual Spring production. The plot of this highly improbable scenario added high humor to the already uproarious appearance of the muscular choruses and the flaming haired "molls." The high lights of the show were the attempts of the denizens of the underworld to become gentlemen, and the antics of their gangster girls in acting the lady. The show fully lived up to the tradition of incongruity and ridiculousness established by Pierrot's preceding all-masculine operettas of this type.

The Shawn Troupe's Boston Ballet

THE STAR COURSE

HEADLINING its annual subscription course with such stellar artists as Benjamino Gigli and Rosa Raisa, two of the most brilliant artists singing on the grand opera stage, the re-organized University Concert and Entertainment Board engaged in another of its successful seasons.

Other presentations were Ted Shawn and his dancers in an artistic and beautiful program, and John Goss and the London singers with a group of songs ably demonstrating the penchant of the old English for sea-chanteys. The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra's novel yet familiar program pleasingly rounded out the season.

THE first night of the Senior Ball, June 11, when six hundred couples gathered in a transformed New Gym, was a summer formal affair—light pink, white, and blue formals, contrasted with dark coats and white trousers, presenting a maze of color and summer brilliance. The alternating music of Phil Spitalny at one end of the spacious Gym and Art Collins at the other made the dance a sparkling battle of orchestras.

A POMPOUS grand march, peppy music, dreamy music, swaying forms, varied colors, oriental decorations—balloon clusters and streamers—dignity, and formality picture the second installment of the Senior Ball on June 12. With more than a thousand couples dancing beneath the gayly colored ceiling of colored balloons and bright hanging streamers to the tunes of Tweet Hogan's and Vern Buck's orchestras, the seniors celebrated their farewell to Illinois' society.

NINE hundred couples attended the Junior Prom, the annual pageant of elaborate decoration and sparkling formal attire, on the night of December 18. With the spaciousness of the New Gym available, this year's Prom was a notable success in color, attendance, and enjoyment. For the third year the Junior Prom was given a regal atmosphere, the crown of royalty being bestowed upon Dorsey Connors, whose coronation preceded the Grand March.

A FANCIFUL ballroom, decorated in green and white streamers and topped by a false green ceiling sparkling with the thousand reflections from the many-pointed silver stars, was the setting for the prom. The dazzlingly white dais of the queen, opposite the hidden platform of Duke Ellington's orchestra, the scintillating rhythm, and the clever specialty acts were features of the dance. Spotlights from above swung their gleaming arcs on the dancers, while hundreds watched the panorama from the balcony above.

MILITARY BALL

THE sparkle of polished brass, the glisten of shined leather, the sharp clink of spurs, long formals flashing their brilliance, and a setting of colonial decorations portrayed the scene of the Military Ball given on February 19. The grand march, led by Jean E. Lattan, co-chairman, and Fern Lycan, and Arthur C. Bass, co-chairman, and Frances Cline brought to a climax the annual military social function.

The Gym Annex's rafters were completely hidden by the colonial decorations of red, white, and blue, and by a great picture of George Washington opposite the orchestra box. Kay Kyser and his orchestra furnished the music for the dance, and entertained particularly with their specialty numbers.

ALL the splendor and wonders of the Arabian Nights were reproduced when five hundred University couples gathered at the Gym Annex for the annual Fine Arts Ball on March 18. All who attended wore mask disguises until the grand march, led by Francis J. Rose, Chairman, and Ann Voelkel, his partner.

Converted into a Sassanian Court area like one of old Arabia, with a great arched wall over the entire dance floor hung with huge red, white, purple, and yellow balloons, the Gym Annex was a cavern of color and brilliance. Jimmie Green and his Aragon Ballroom orchestra played as the costumed dancers frolicked to his rhythm.

ONE hundred fifty University couples, representing every Greek house on the campus, took over Bradley Hall on March 5 for the exclusive Pan-Hellenic Ball. Brandy's Singing Band furnished the music for the affair, which was attended by two representatives from each fraternity and sorority in the Inter-Fraternity and Pan-Hellenic Councils. The Pan-Hel dance, like a movie version of a collegiate hop, was a push-shove-and-laugh affair to the rollicking melodies of the orchestra.

DANCING to the music of Freddie Bergin and his Vagabonds in the summer evening coolness of Robeson's Roof, eight hundred summer students and faculty members dropped their work and found relief from the heat. The roof was converted into a colorful garden, lighted dimly with gay Japanese lanterns and decorated with bright crepe paper, topped above by the brilliance of a full moon. This was the University's first Summer Prom, and its success promises that it will become a regular summer social function.

A THOUSAND Freshmen stepped out for their social début as a class on January 16, when they romped through an evening of rollicking dancing to the tunes of Tweet Hogan's band. The fanciful colonial decorations of the Sophomore Cotillion of the night before remained as decorations for the Frolic of the Class of 1935.

Although strangers to the rather elaborate functions of the University, the Freshmen were not long in making themselves at home. They took over the floor of the New Gym and made it very much their own during this and future dances.

TRUE to rural custom, the Ag and Home Ec students donned the traditional overalls, straw hats, bandanas, and gingham dresses on April 8 to make things merry for the annual Ag dance held this year at College Hall. Dignity, formality, and style were cast aside for the evening, and true barn dance hilarity prevailed. Dispensing with chairs and lounges, the intermissions between dances by Verne Parker's orchestra were spent on the floor or on bales of hay. The informality of the evening makes it one to be remembered.

ORIGINALLY designed to serve in an advisory capacity, the Dance Supervision Committee has enlarged its function so that now it manages ticket sales, helps in the preparation of budgets, and endeavors to insure the success of all class dances.

Selected by the Student Council in the fall, the eleven seniors on this year's committee have materially aided in the achievements of the class committees working to provide inexpensive yet excellent entertainment for their classmates.

At the beginning of the second semester, this committee was empowered by the Student Council to supervise not only class dances, but all major University social functions.

THE University of Illinois Concert Band is one of the few truly symphonic bands, and under the baton of Professor A. A. Harding it is introducing many of the better works of contemporary American composers. An organization of the calibre of the University of Illinois Concert Band can do much toward encouraging the development of an American idiom in music, and toward this end many works which are scored directly for symphonic bands have been included in the band's excellent and comprehensive library.

The rosters of the University of Illinois Bands carry the names of over 300 musicians, who are awarded their places on a competitive basis. The First and Second Regimental Bands train men in order to develop in them the technique and finesse required of members of the Concert Band.

From the ranks of all three bands is chosen The University Football Band. This band makes out-of-town trips with the Varsity Football Team, thrilling many an enthusiastic football crowd with the piercing brilliancy and sonorous depth of tone it produces as it goes through the intricate evolutions which have made it famous.

Registration in military drill and tactics is not required of members of any of the three bands.

THE UNIVERSITY CHORUS

THE University Chorus is the largest choral organization on the campus, its membership consisting of 175 voices. Membership in this chorus is open to students of the University, to faculty people, and to the singers of the community. While the number of students changes largely from year to year, there is always a permanent group of faculty and townspeople which enables the chorus to do major choral performances each year. Three concerts were given during the past year. During the Christmas season, a concert of Christmas carols and orchestra selections was given in conjunction with the University Orchestra, in which a portion of Handel's Messiah was performed. In February, Mendelssohn's great oratorio Elijah was presented by the chorus, the orchestra, and four soloists chosen from the faculty. In April a gala concert of music from the music-dramas of Richard Wagner was given in the Lincoln Hall Theater. This concert was accompanied by the University Orchestra, and the chorus was assisted by four soloists, one of them being a prominent Chicago singer. Director Frederic B. Stiven of the School of Music is the conductor of both the chorus and the orchestra. In the course of the past ten years, the chorus has sung a long list of oratorios and operas in concert form.

REVIEWING STAND, MILITARY DAY

UNIVERSITY

ON February 28, 1867, the land on which the campus is now situated was accepted by the State. Later in the same year the Board of Trustees adopted a plan for the Military Department and said in its report, "while the effects of this Department will be to scatter through the State a body of men, so far advanced in Military work, that, in case of war, they will furnish skilled officers, ready to drill and lead the Military forces of the country, it is the opinion of many experienced educators that the introduction of Military drill and discipline is of positive value for their educating influence. They will materially assist in the Government of the Institution, and tend to form those habits of order and punctuality, for want of which so many educated men fail of usefulness and success."

"PASS IN REVIEW!"

THE Military curriculum for the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, as it now stands, was promulgated soon after the World War, after having been adopted by the University Senate and approved by the Board of Trustees. The value of student participation to the nation and the University in a military program of this kind is becoming more and more obvious. It is to the advantage of the Nation and State that future officers are being trained here in a civilian atmosphere. Its advantage to the University may be seen in the light of the impression made upon the people at large that the University is endeavoring to train its men along this, as well as other, lines of public service, and in the interest that they take in the activities of the University in consequence. Its value as to character development of the student cannot be over-estimated, and moreover, the study of Mathematics and Engineering from a military point of view is truly an educational experience.

ALTHOUGH the training of men to become officers for the Organized Reserve, who in time of war would furnish a nucleus of trained leaders, is the primary purpose of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, it has a scarcely less important place in the development of those qualities which make for civil as well as military leadership. Both require initiative, dependability, courtesy, and obedience to orders—the aims of this organization. They are accomplished through the media of military fraternal organizations and teams. The competitive benefits derived from rifle and pistol teams, polo teams, the Horse Show, and Pershing Rifles all make for an invaluable Ésprit de Corps.

SINCE, in time of war, every citizen is subject to call by his country, it should be the duty of every citizen to aid in preparation, in time of peace, for service in time of need. This assistance takes its form in both finance and personnel. Since its establishment in 1868, the growth of the Military Department has been proportional to that of the University. In training the pick of our young men in the University Brigade, the University has shown itself to be squarely behind the government in its policy of national defense. The soldierly appearance and manly conduct of these young men are sources of great pride to those who have the privilege of being identified with them.

THE CONFERENCE MEDAL

LEE H. SENTMAN was the 1931 winner of the Big Ten Conference medal. This medal is awarded annually by the Intercollegiate Conference through its Faculty Representative at each Conference institution, to the member of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in athletics and scholastic work. At one time or another while Sentman was an undergraduate, he held the world's record in the 50-yard, 60-yard, 70-yard, and 75-yard high hurdles, and he tied the world's record in the 75-yard low hurdles. Scholastically, Lee maintained a "B" average while he was in the University.

FRATERNITIES,

and the mystic strength of Greek vows of brotherhood—these, as much as the time grayed grandeur of great halls and the endless echo of hurrying feet, have their honored place among those traditions which combine to mold the fire of youth and the pace of learning into the living thing that is our University.

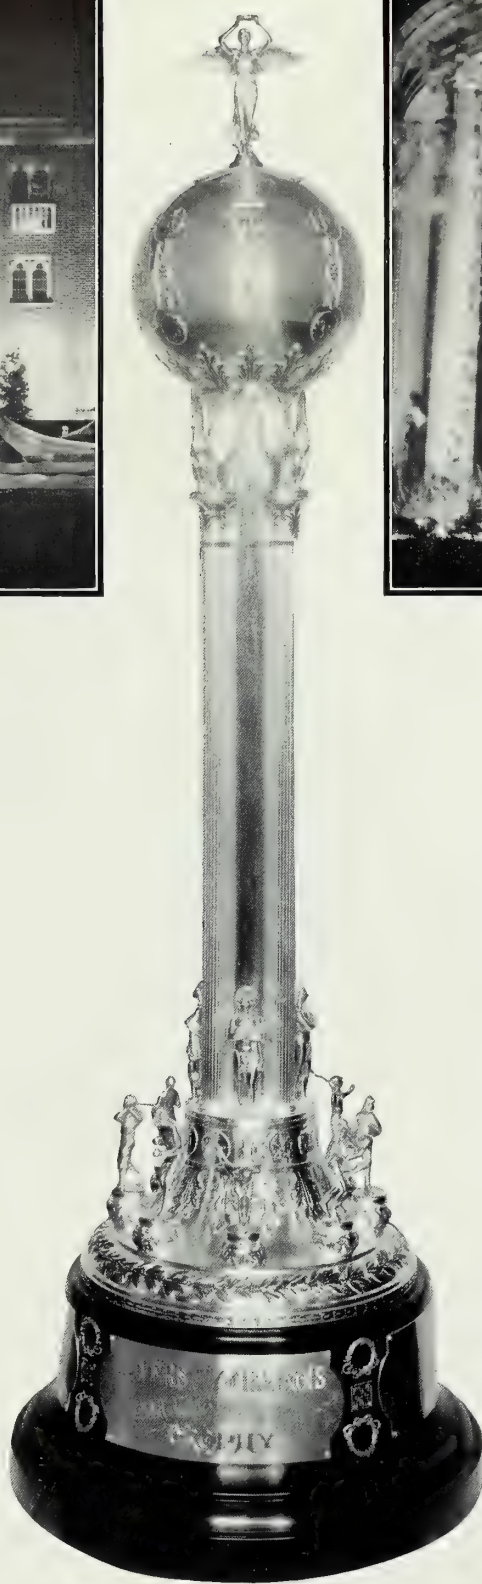

For, as those student multitudes go through the daily grind of study and instruction, it is to the great homes dotting the misshapen Fraternity Row that the college world looks for much of its color.

Good fraternities—yes. Poor fraternities—yes; poor in the eyes of a disinterested populace, or under the veneer-piercing scrutiny of university administrators. But good or bad, there lingers forever the comfort and the goodness of men who can clasp the hand of a one-time stranger, and call him "Brother."

Nor is this queer Greek brotherhood a mere society of reckless youths from here and there. For within the walls of fraternities occur the quarrels, the secrets, the hours of converse which can arise only from men who are more than associates.

So through the years will endure the resounding whack of oaken paddles, the mantled majesty of sacred rites, the joyousness of college play. Together they form that indescribable institution which men have termed—the Greek Fraternity.

What a value this is!
More than sliced pineapple
. . . . the center slices at no extra cost

center slices!*

● Center slices are packed in 4 different sized cans

pineapple prices are the lowest in years

LIBBY'S Sliced Hawaiian Pineapple—every single can of it—brings you just the center slices! Not ordinary sliced pineapple, but just the slices that are loveliest in color, richest in flavor, most uniform in size and shape. Packed in a syrup of pure pineapple juice and cane sugar, they reach you with all their extra goodness held.

Yet they cost you no more!

Insist on getting this extra value. Your grocer has Libby's Sliced Hawaiian Pineapple or he can get it for you easily.

Ask for Crushed, too

Libby's Crushed Pineapple is tangy-sweet; luscious; most convenient for pies, puddings, fritters, shortcakes. And just try spreading it over your breakfast grapefruit! Libby, McNeill & Libby, Honolulu, Hawaii.

ONE OF THE EXTRA VALUES IN LIBBY'S FAMOUS 100 FOODS

A CDX Dental X-Ray
 Unit — you will need one in your new office

LEADERS in the dental profession have their own x-ray units. They find that making their own radiographs enables them to spend their time more profitably and speeds their work with greater efficiency and accuracy. The fact that many of these leaders have chosen the CDX
 Dental X-Ray Unit evidences its superiority.

The CDX Dental X-Ray Unit hangs suspended from the wall. It is 100% electrically safe. You and your patient can touch the CDX while in operation without any danger of shock.

And owning a CDX is not an expense. Our liberal monthly payment plan will enable you to pay each monthly installment from the revenues derived and still have a profit. In starting out you cannot afford to be without this important tool of your profession. Write for full information.

THE FIRST AMERICAN PLOW STEEL

At the mill office of Jones & Quiggs, in 1846, John Deere presented specifications for steel for his plows.

He had traveled from Moline, Illinois, to Pittsburgh to see what could be done about getting domestic steel, rolled to his exacting specifications, instead of having the material shipped all the way from England.

Coat off, sleeves rolled up, his manner marked him the hardy pioneer and man of action. He was forceful, direct.

An uninterrupted supply of steel was needed to meet the demand for plows for the thousands of land-seekers who were pouring into the prairie lands of the New West to lay out farms. New tides of settlers would be calling for more and more plows of steel. John Deere plows would be sold all the way to the Pacific.

The success of the plow-maker's mission has been recorded by the industrial historian:

The first slab of plow steel ever rolled in the United States was rolled by William Woods, at the steel works of Jones & Quiggs, in 1846, and shipped to John Deere, Moline, Illinois, under whose direction it was made.

From "Iron in All Ages", By JAMES SWANK

Less than ten years before, John Deere, as a frontier blacksmith, had drawn from his forge his first steel plow—a plow fashioned from an old mill-saw and the first to scour successfully in the rich, black soil of the great prairie region. A few years later he had brought the manufacture of steel plows to the front rank of industry when he had arranged for importation from England of special sizes of steel.

Now he had opened the way to unlimited production of his plows, and ultimately to the great John Deere organization of today serving agriculture in all parts of the world with farm implements bearing his name as their guarantee.

America's First Tubular Skate

The first pair of Tubular Skates made in the United States or Canada were made in Chicago and by Nestor Johnson. The fundamental principles of JOHNSON skates have remained the same since the original pair were finished. Their ALL STEEL—FULL TUBULAR CONSTRUCTION has won fame all over the world.

There is only one JOHNSON skate. Look for the full name NESTOR JOHNSON on every pair.

S. S. White Operating Equipment

Diamond Chair
Equipment Unit
and Operating Stool

Let us help you plan your office. We have rendered this service to your predecessors in the profession for many years, why not take advantage of the offer
—it's free.

Albeit fine feathers do not necessarily make fine birds, or clothes the man, an impressive showing is a valuable asset. The environment into which you invite your patients, subtly tells whether or not you are progressive and successful.

There are three factors of prime importance in the success of a dental practice. The first can be considered as knowledge, skill, and experience; the second as personality; the third, environment.
Knowledge and training should of course be the deciding factors in judging a dentist's ability.

Unfortunately these are too often judged last by patients. They estimate a man's ability first by his surroundings, then by his personality, his skill and training last. Fair or unfair, this method of mass approval is nevertheless a fact.

S. S. White Equipment will make your office a modern operating room. It is graceful, dignified, will impart the proper atmosphere, and give a uniformly dependable service. The Unit brings the automatically warmed sprays, the mouth and antrum lamps, cauteries, warm air syringe and cut-off with graduated air pressures, and thermal instruments, close to the field of operation for comfortable and efficient operating.

It will extend the limits of your services and certainly make your time mean more dollars for the hour.

Successful Dentists Prefer American Dental Cabinets

A careful tabulation of the successful dentists in the U.S.A. shows that they prefer American Dental Cabinets.
In the 450 Sutter Bldg., San Francisco, there are 202 Dentists and 210 American Dental Cabinets.

In the Marshal Field Annex, Chicago, there are 300 Dentists and 450 American Dental Cabinets. The Pittsfield Bldg. has 225 Dentists and 300 American Cabinets.

Our goods may be purchased from the dealer in combination with chair, engine, etc., and in fact a complete outfit, on one contract, on easy monthly payments. We will exhibit our cabinets in your city and hope to see every member of the senior class.

Always years ahead of the nearest competitor, American Cabinets are sometimes copied, but never equaled.

THE KEYSTONE started fence making in 1889. From a little one-room building at Tremont, Ill., it has gradually grown to be the largest independent wire and fence mills in the U. S.; in fact, in the world.

These are "self-contained" plants—making their own steel from the raw material up, including ingots, billets, rods, wire and wire products, for general manufacturing purposes, as well as for their own use.

While Keystone specializes on manufacturers' wire, woven wire fence, barbed wire, nails, gates, posts, etc., its outstanding nationally advertised product is "Galvannealed" wire. Galvannealing is a patented method of wire making, whereby a much heavier coating of zinc is applied to a copper-bearing wire base, resulting in a product that far outlasts ordinary galvanized wire, yet sells at regular market prices. Interesting literature will be mailed on request.

SYMBOL OF CONFIDENCE...

Notwithstanding the tremendous economic pressure which has temporarily impaired the normal status of AMERICA'S industries the ILLINOIS TERMINAL RAILROAD SYSTEM continues its explicit CONFIDENCE in the future. This CONFIDENCE is exemplified in its gigantic program of development, improvement and construction which continues without interruption.

*"Night or Day . . .
The Electric Way"*

ILLINOIS TERMINAL salutes the LEADERS OF TOMORROW—you
STUDENTS OF TODAY and you others who are building for the future

"He Is A Wonderful Son"

SHE SAID PROUDLY

"H E never gives me a moment's worry. Of course he's a man now, and he's so thoughtful! He telephones home regularly and I enjoy every minute of those calls. Just last week he telephoned me."

A telephone call from a son or daughter in a distant city brings joy to every mother. There is no excuse for being thoughtless when a Long Distance call "whisks you home" in a minute or so. Call the folks today! It's Quick, Clear, Inexpensive.

BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

W E were justly proud of the 1931 Illini Club of Chicago Year Book which we published, because it was a splendid publication. But we are proud of every one of our many publications, because we know they are the finest in their field, not only in typographical beauty and makeup, but in printing and informational accuracy. For years we have specialized in publishing Year Books and Directories for Athletic Clubs, Alumni Associations, and Fraternities. For information regarding up-to-date lists of fraternity and college men living in Chicago and its vicinity write

SUCCESS

Every young man who is about to establish a dental office pictures himself enjoying a successful practice amid pleasant surroundings and operating with modern equipment.

Before this can be brought about finances must be arranged and a location selected. Perhaps plans will have to be drawn and the office remodeled to suit the future occupant. Interior decorations and furnishings that harmonize with the equipment will have to be selected. Then comes the installation of the equipment, the sending out of announcements and the adoption of a practical method of record keeping and accounting. During the past twenty-four years our organization has been chiefly engaged in helping our clients solve problems such as these. We would be pleased to serve you in a similar capacity.
